1956 THORNTONITE

Introducing the Book of the Year, called The Thorntonite for 1956, published at

THORNTON TOWNSHIP HIGH SCHOOL

HARVEY, ILLINOIS

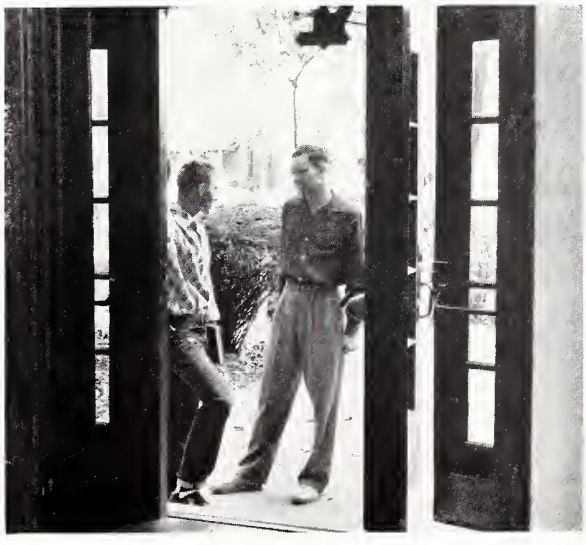
Capturing these elements of

Arrival of the buses,
Time to chat with friends,
A minute on the T Bench (if there was room)
The dash to classes,
Study—recite—dress for gym—dress again
for classes;
Cook—sew—paint—watch experiments;
Eat—sing—solve world problems—play—
All in the day's work.

the day . . .

The south entrance—across from the parking lots.

One of the west doors—time to loaf before school.



The T Bench was always crowded, fall and spring.

There's plenty of time . . .

You met at your friends' lockers before the dash to class.

until the last minute rush

You turn around for just a . . .

. . . and where'd they go?

	Organizations	pages 72-103
	Athletics	pages 104-125
	Personnel	pages 126-194
	Advertisers	pages 195-280

An escorted tour of TTHS starts in the yearbook office, and what better place? It was here that this book was created out of a jumble of advertising contracts, thousands of identification slips, copy, pictures, telephone calls, and people milling around. This was the staff's home away from home and at times a mass of orderly confusion.

Recognize the next room? This is 206, where the speech classes learned to talk. Often there were peals of laughter when someone gave an entertaining bit. Classes particularly enjoyed going into the "studio" and taking over the mike.

Yearbook, Speech, Rental Library

Speech Class—Jim Van Evra runs the recorder as Chuck Truby broadcasts.

Rental library—Quin Morrison.

No tour of TTHS would be complete without a side trip into the English rental library, with its books shelved from floor to ceiling. Do you remember all the reading we did in English classes? It was from this very room that textbooks, novels, and short story collections came.

Here's a familiar sight in a classroom. Everyone had fees to pay and stubs to turn in.

French class—Janice Egan taking dues; Judy Wilhelm joining French Club.

Because of crowded conditions, classrooms are at a premium. When a teacher has a free period, she usually must vacate her classroom for someone else to use. The faculty study provides work space.

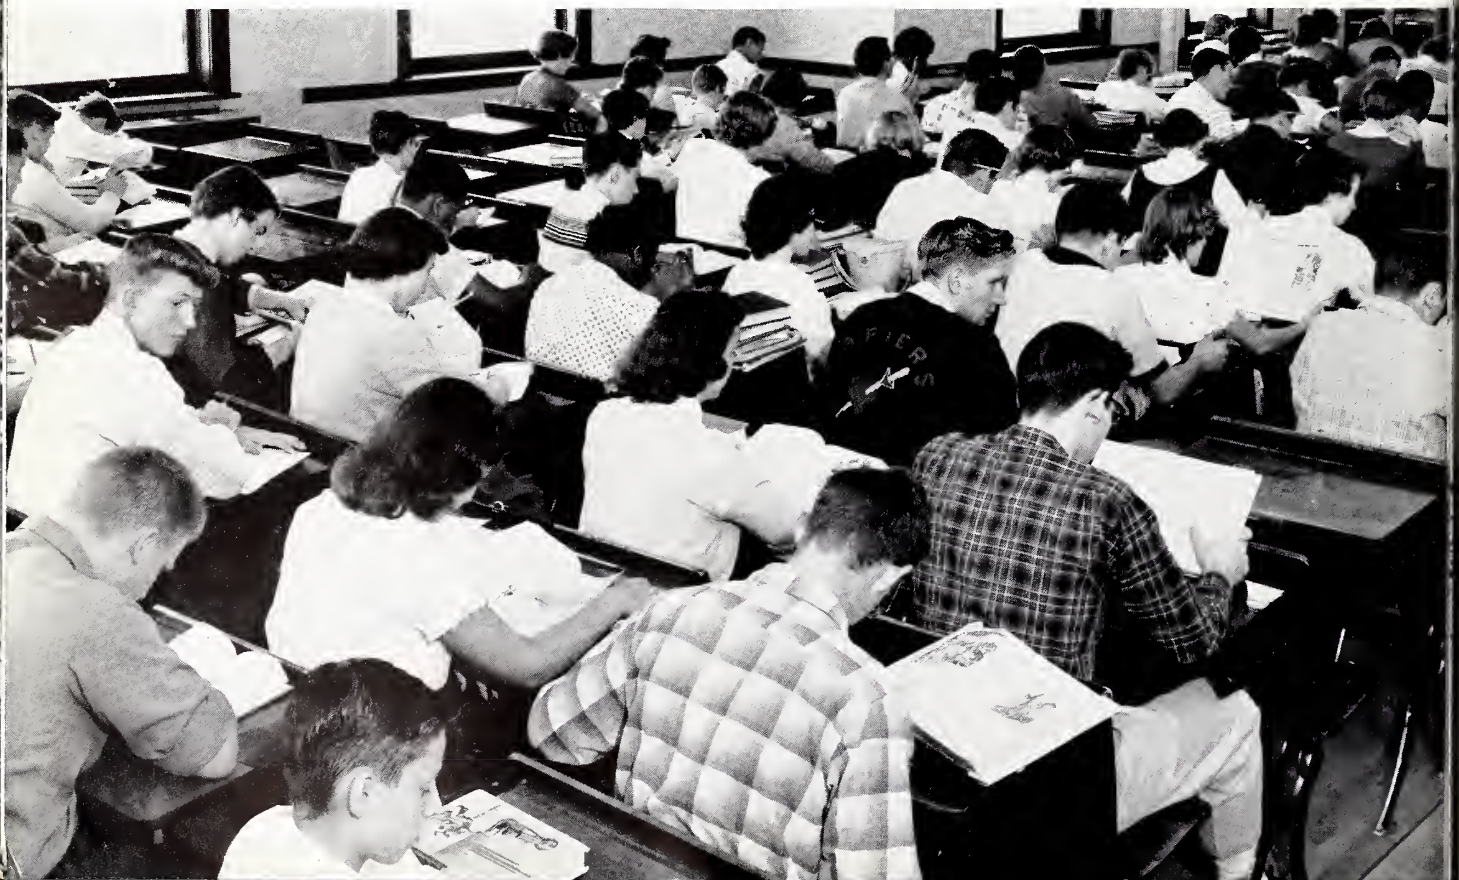
Some teachers have no classroom at all to call their own, but must move from one to another all day long. Desks are provided in the faculty study so that they may have places to keep their class-books and papers.

Study hall 209 is primarily for use by social studies students, but when that is no longer feasible, other students are assigned there too.

Faculty study—Miss Comegys, Miss Bartman, Miss Thomas.

Faculty, Study, 209, Bookstore

Study hall 209—A special library for supplementary reading in Social Studies is here.



The high school bookstore is convenient for buying school supplies like paper and pencils, but it is also the place for getting rental and bus tickets and for newspaper and yearbook subscriptions.

Bookstore—Norman Segraves, customer, and Judy Ahlberg, clerk.

Gym Lockers

Gym lockers—Sue Swarens, Patty Wilson, Theresa Sikora.

Gym lockers are located in that inner hallway which leads to the girls gym. On its doors are posted GAA announcements and lists to sign.

On one side of the hall is the small gym where special classes are held. Next to it are the offices of the girls physical education instructors. Across the hall are the dressing rooms and showers. At the end of the hallway is the big gym.

Like to play shuffleboard? There are courts laid out on the hallway floor.

Girls gym—Mrs. Mabel Beier, instructor.

Gym, Library Offices

"Exercise! One, two, three, four!" These commands come from the gym as girls do their calisthenics. They may take sports, rhythms, and swimming, too. Faculty are assisted by student gym leaders who take roll and help with the teaching of new activities.

Gym Office – Miss Begnoche, Miss Gray, Mrs. Waters.

Library office, across the hall— Miss Bartman, Carol Metzner.

Nurses' Offices, Health Training

On the next cross corridor, to the right, are the nurses' offices. That machine two girls are twiddling is an audiometer, used to determine which students need front classroom seats because of defective hearing.

Volunteer assistants, like these two, help in many ways. They do clerical work, learn to take temperatures, and get a preview of nurses training. Miss Lieb and Mrs. Salkeld are the two nurses who are in charge of Thornton's health program.

At the audiometer—Barbara Chianelli, Cynthia Chlebicki.

Home nursing class—Miss Lieb, demonstrating. Seated: Genny Durbin, Lois Mueller, Carol Johnson, Josephine Evans. Standing: Janice Black.

Medical Arts Club project—Pat Fones, Judy Miller, Patti Wilson.

Tooth trouble—Winston Clayton, Mrs. Salkeld.

What do the nurses do all day, besides giving out pills to students who are ill. They check up on all those who have been absent because of illness. They sponsor the Medical Arts Club. They teach home nursing to the homemaking classes. They check all in-coming freshmen for general physical condition, hearing and sight, and they re-check upperclassmen with previous difficulties. Chest X-rays for control of tuberculosis are part of their service.

"Are you overweight or underweight?" asks Miss Lieb. "We have a program of great value to you in either case."

Carving lesson—Diane Yeoman, Lucille Marlowe.

Foods, Clothing Laboratories

Muffin making—Carol Pearson, Carol Zaborowski, Jonalee Mollicone.

Clothing lab—Shirley Armond, Peggy Connor, Mary Pat Roach, Janice House, Evelyn Sudlow.

A turkey dinner, apple muffins, a simple garment or a tailored one—all of these the Home Economics classes learn to handle. The annual style show and tea, for mothers of the girls in Homemaking courses, draw appreciative guests and involve a lot of advance preparation.

Members of the second-year foods classes plan, prepare, and serve luncheons for faculty guests. Twice a year they serve dinner to the Board of Education.

Dressmaking—Glenda Buss, Dorothy Stonestreet, Jeannine Hoekstra, Joyce Featherstone.

Sketching class—Judy Porter, model.

Art Classes

Down the last cross-corridor on the north end of the second floor are the Art Department rooms. Drawing and painting, ceramics, handicraft, and jewelry are all taught by experienced teachers.

The department plays a big part in publicizing school events.

With posters to make for dances, games, and banquets, there is always a big stack of orders. Decorating the corridors at Christmas takes weeks of advance preparation.

The outstanding feature of this department is the fact that it gives the student a chance to relax and to express himself by his work.

Ceramics—Evelyn Brathovde.

Jewelry, Poster-making

Enameling—Carol Beagle.

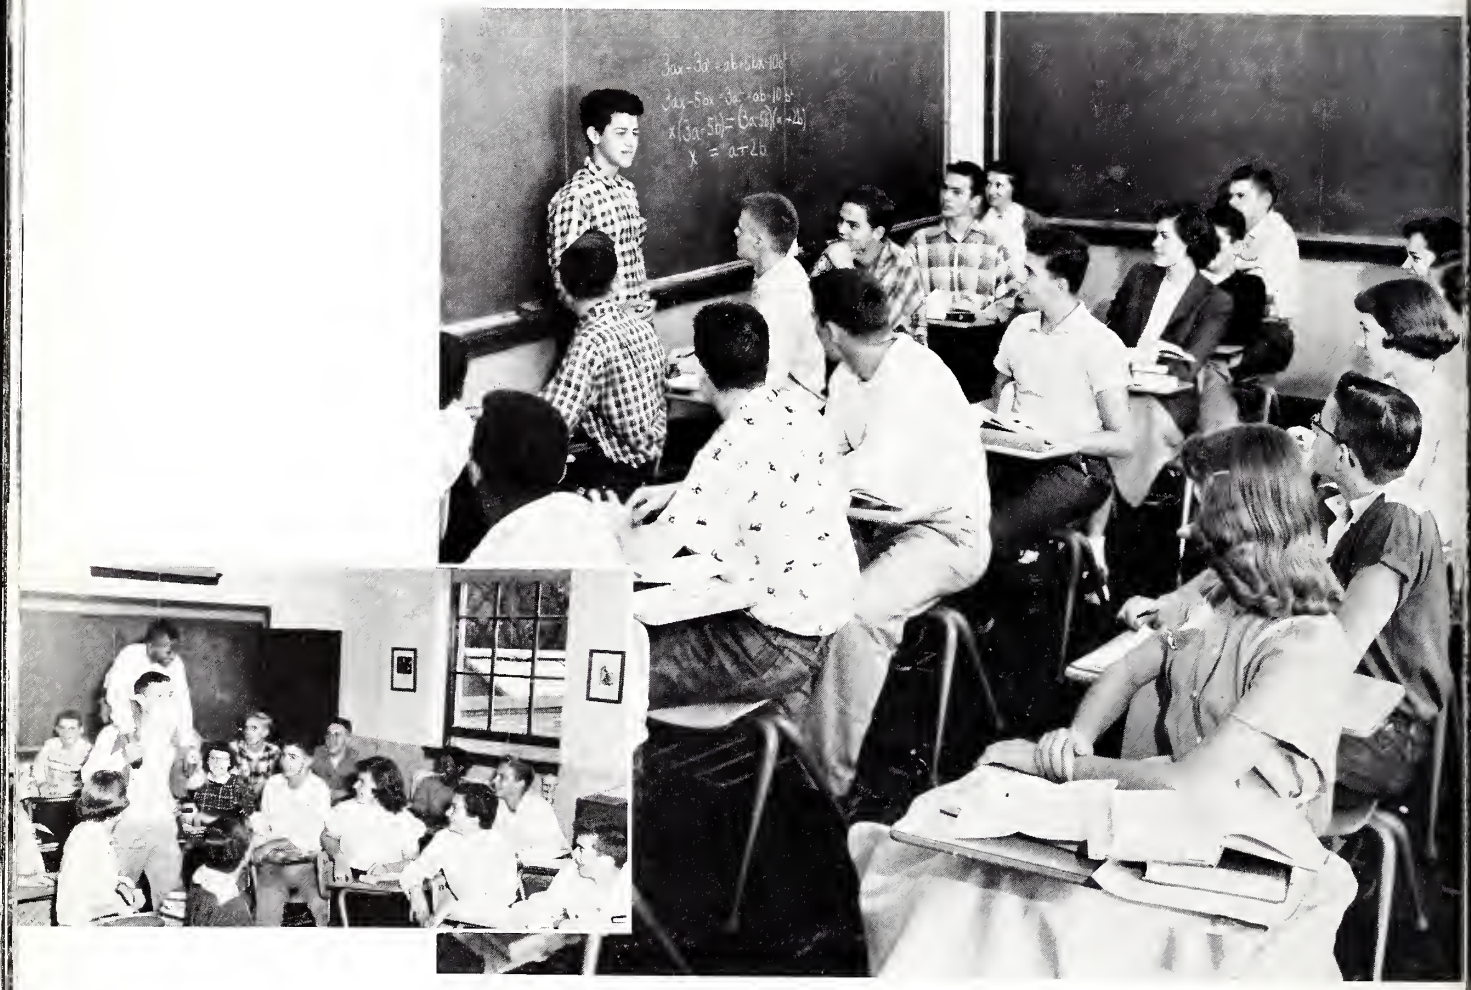
Mathematics, Classrooms



Math class—Kenny Mauro at the board; Ed Starzyk pays off a World Series bet to Forest Tellis.

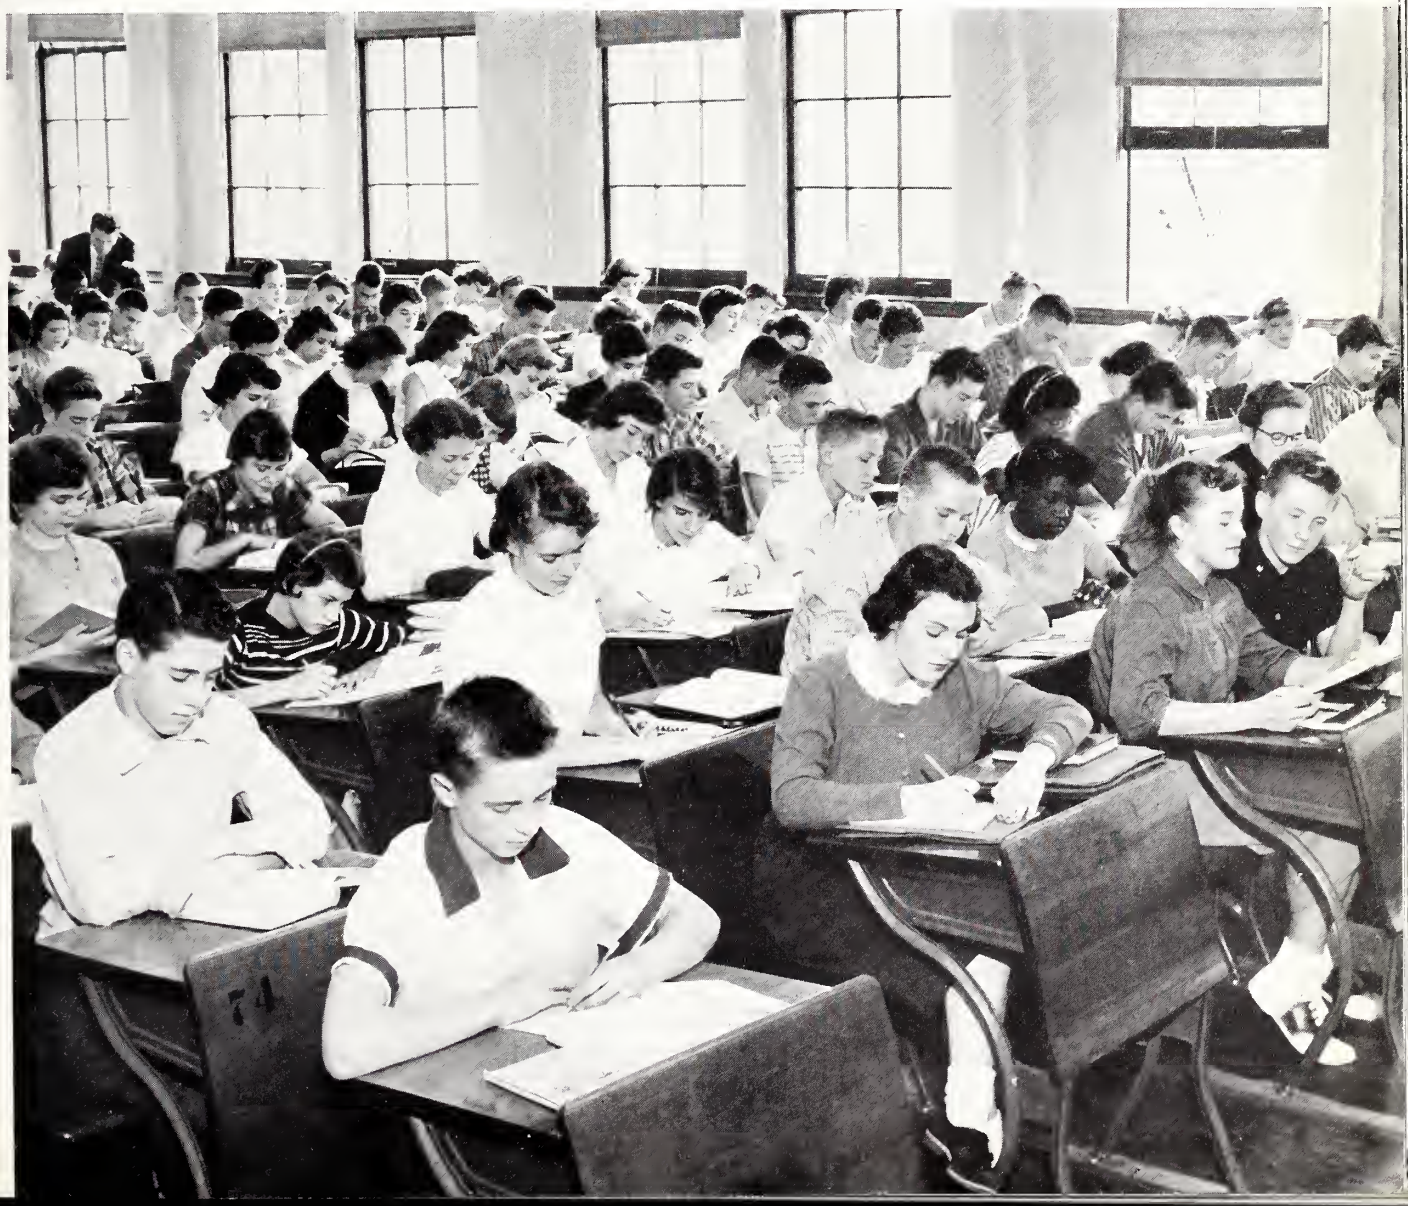
Math classes meet just across the hall from the art rooms. There the department is busy training future engineers and mathematicians, for the science of mathematics is becoming increasingly important in everyday life. Math I students wondered how they would ever be able to do the Math IV work, and Math IV students wondered the same thing. High light was the National Math contest, for upperclassmen.

Big Study Hall 204

Up the Steps

Study hall was a welcome sight to many students. There, advance assignments were prepared and back assignments were made up, or were supposed to be made up. Time was consumed in the library, and sometimes, if one were not observed in the act, he could find again some of that sleep he had lost.

Study hall 240—It could happen that everyone was busy!



Third Floor

From study hall 240, stairs lead up to the business classrooms. Clacking of typewriters greets the visitor. Closer listening reveals a timed writing or drill work. The typing course offers students general knowledge of typing to be used for business or personal use. Aside from the practice of speedy and accurate typing, students receive instruction in the correct use and operation of their typing machines. Shorthand, junior business training, social-business arithmetic, retail selling, bookkeeping, and secretarial practice are also offered. The business department introduces basic business knowledge.

Typing—Second-year class works on a practice exercise.

Business Arithmetic—Annis Hicks demonstrates.

Classrooms in the Business Department are in the newest addition to the main building. There faculty aim to help pupils develop work habits, learn to work independently and without waste of time and effort, and to carry out instructions.

Social-Business Arithmetic deals with rules and methods for using figures that occur in business transactions. Shorthand is the study of brief forms and outlines that will save time in the business office. It induces quick mental reaction and develops concentration. Bookkeeping helps to give a student a general knowledge of methods to be used in the business world.

Typing, Shorthand and Bookkeeping

Shorthand—Mrs. Dietrich dictating.

Bookkeeping—Miss Brushfield helps a student.

General Science, Chemistry, Physics

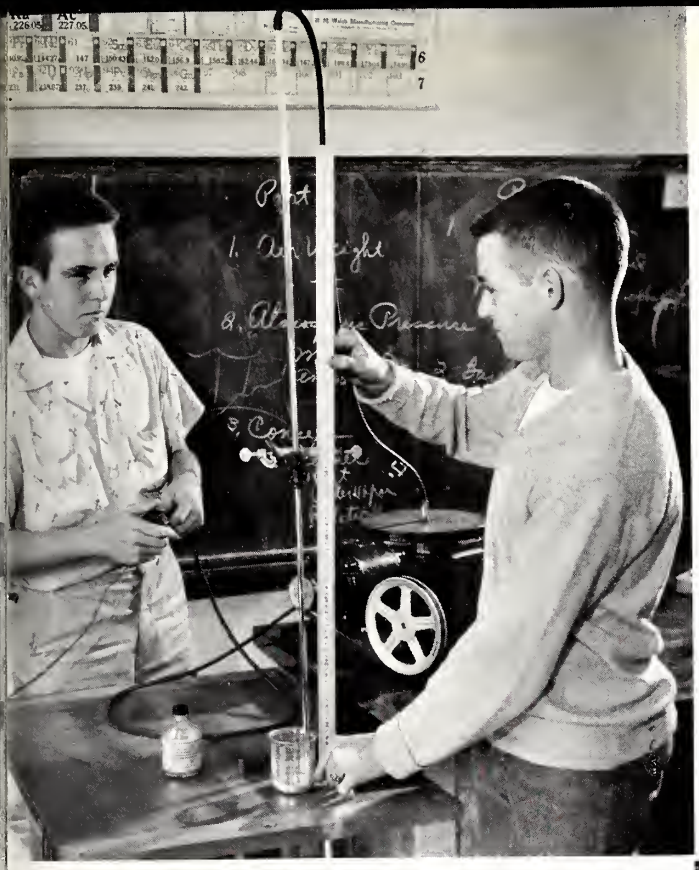
As the science department comes into view, many promising Curies and Einsteins can be seen investigating what is going on about them.

As freshmen they learn the fundamentals in General Science classes. At first they find scientific terminology hard to grasp, but familiarity and practice make it easier. Demonstrations conducted by teachers or students are fun to watch and very enlightening.

Biology classes make many interesting discoveries. Peering through microscopes they see strange sizes and shapes like the one-celled amoeba and simple types of plants.

In chemistry Thorntonites find out the composition and properties of many substances. They enjoy donning aprons and working in chem labs. Producing hydrogen and learning its properties are among their many experiments.

Student demonstration—Alex Ratkus in Mrs. Garlock's class.



Physics experiment—Charles Crowder, Dan De Frank.

Physics students find experiments interesting, though puzzling, at times. Studying the nature of light, the properties of sound, and the principles of buoyancy, gravitation, and electricity is an important part of their work. They apply these principles to practical problems.

Chemistry lab—George Anderson, Charles Olsen, Sandy McNair.

Physics lecture—Mr. Plume's classroom.

Lunchroom

The smell of food brings the tour to the cafeteria. Here the staff are putting on last minute touches, getting ready for the mob.

There's the bell, and here come the students from eveywhere and all with big appetites. Soups, salads, sandwiches, meat, potatoes, vegetables, pie, and milk are on the menu.

Conversation goes along with food at the lunch hour. This is a time to catch up on the latest news and to get in on a preview of test questions.

Mrs. Davis serves behind the counter in the student cafeteria.

Food!

Eating doesn't take all period. There is time to talk and read.

Faculty have their own cafeteria line.

Music Rooms

Around the corner from the cafeteria are the music rooms. If you sing, or play an instrument, a spot for you is waiting.

Choral groups are Girls Glee Clubs, Mixed Chorus, Girls Choir, Boys Glee Club, and the Madrigal Singers. Instrumental groups are Varsity and Junior Varsity Bands and Orchestras.

Music practice—Mr. Pernecky, Virginia Peterson.

Violin trio—John Tripp, Judith Chapman, John Schrader.

Lots of Practice Needed

Chorus practice—Mr. Armbruster directing.

Music groups do a lot of practicing. Large ones rehearse in the big chorus or band room. Individual lessons take place in practice rooms along the hall.

Band maneuvers—Mr. Hopkins signaling.

Class principal's office—Helen Chiattello, Mrs. Caroline Larrence.

Class Principals

Program change—Robert Baldock, Mr. Carl Beier.

Everyone at TTHS is dependent upon the four class principals, who take an active interest in each of their students.

Taking care of absences, cuts, discipline problems, and detentions, plus giving educational advice are just a few of the jobs which face these men each day. Arranging program cards for every student is another big task.

In the present system of organization, one man is always the freshman class principal, but the others stay with their classes until the group graduates.

That means rotating offices too; so there is a moving day in June. A secretary in the outer office, Mrs. Larrance, handles business while the principals are teaching classes and acts as receptionist for waiting students.

Money to pay, Credits to check

Do you have to make a phone call, get references, or check your credits? The place to do it is in the main office.

If a student is phoned at school, the message is taken down in this office and the student notified. A file of program cards enables the office to locate very quickly the person wanted. A waiting hall guard delivers the message.

Attendance records are kept in this office too. If a student wants a work permit, here is the place to come. A secretary will help with the application form. Teachers mailboxes are located in the main office and Credit Union deposits may be made there. Daily announcement sheets are mimeographed here too.

Registrar—Mrs. Leona Wiener checks credits for Ronald Aldridge.

Business office—Donna Pouilly, Harriet Burton.

If you have money to deposit, take it to the business office. That is where all financial matters are handled.

Advertising money for the newspaper and yearbook, club dues, revenue from ticket sales are all handled here. Each organization has its own account. Just hand Miss Burton the money and she'll hand you a receipt.

Newspaper office—Jackie Lee (at typewriter), Marilyn Detweiler (sorting). Mr. Olson, adviser, Barbara Ziegler, Lorraine Beech, Gloria Sanders.

Newspaper, Student Council Offices

In 108 A all the activity of getting out the weekly Thorntonite is centered. Across the hall is the K I P office, where students get their chance at helping to run the school through student government.

The office of the dean of girls is the center of activity for the Girls Club.

Hall guards have their headquarters in the office of the dean of boys.

Club meetings, like the Pedagogs' initiation, take place in nearby classrooms. Pedagogs are a chapter of Future Teachers of America.

KIP office—Barbara Boudreau, Tom Seemayer, Mr. McMahon, Janet Walberg.

Club Meeting, Deans' Offices

Pedagogs initiation—Janet Williams, officer, Alyce Bucnis, initiate.

Girls Club office—Jolean Joyner, Carole Fiedler, typist.

Boys Club office—Norman Krikau, Nickie Graves.

Maintenance Department

Carpenter Shop—Don Wilson.

At the four corners, presided over by the Lincoln Statue, is the Thornton version of the intersection of State and Madison. On one corner is the office of the building superintendent. Across from it is the faculty men's lounge. Down the main corridor a few steps is the women's lounge. Off to one side and down some steps is the school carpenter shop.

Maintenance department—Ralph Green with Howard Doster, building superintendent.

Faculty men's lounge—Mr. Gladstone, Mr. Scott, Mr. Armbruster.

Faculty Lounges

Faculty women's lounge—Miss Zolp, Miss Hance, Miss Seebach.

Planning, Repairing

If you turn right, when you come to the Little Theatre, you will be in the Industrial Arts shops.

Thornton's extensive Industrial Education Division continued to be a busy place this year with nine different courses offered in the Industrial Arts section and five in Industrial Vocations. Over one thousand boys and one girl were enrolled. Classes met in seven shops and two drafting rooms.

Industrial Arts courses are intended for all students, regardless of occupational choice. Vocational Division courses are for junior and senior trade preparatory students and are designed for those who plan to become draftsmen, machinists, auto mechanics, electricians, or skilled tradesmen in some other field.

Auto Shop—David Wissel, Tom Smith, Mr Bill Hayse.

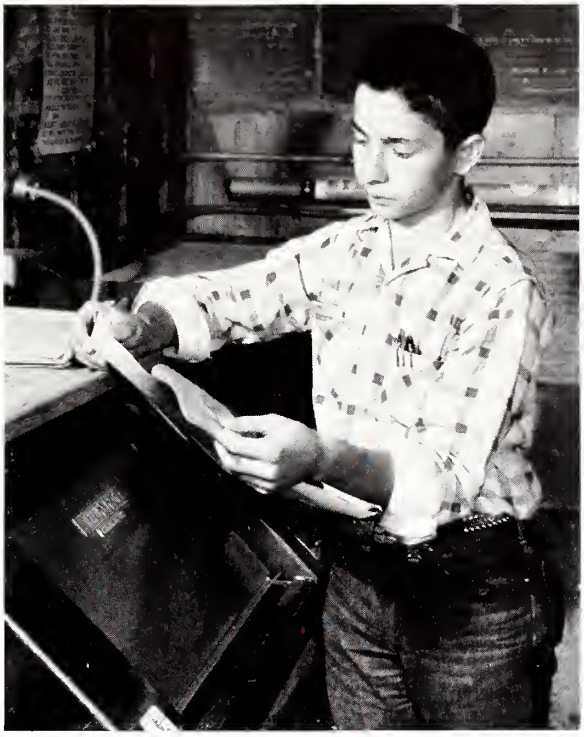
Mechanical drawing—Mr. Harmon Roberts, Roger Martin, Lynn Hamilton.

Approximately three hundred boys take a general shop program in which they get some work in each of the five areas provided for in the department. Full-year courses follow in each field and are chosen by sophomores, juniors, and seniors. These courses are mechanical drawing, blueprint reading, woodworking, electricity, auto mechanics, and metal shop.

The demand for graduates from vocational courses remains high, with more requests coming in from employers than there are graduates to fill the positions.

Diversified Occupations, a cooperative work-training program, supplements class and shop by offering training in eleven different trades.

Diversified Occupations—Mr. John Abraham, shop owner; Mr. Ralph Rowe, coordinator; Donald Meyer, student assistant.



Blue Printing—Don Behm.

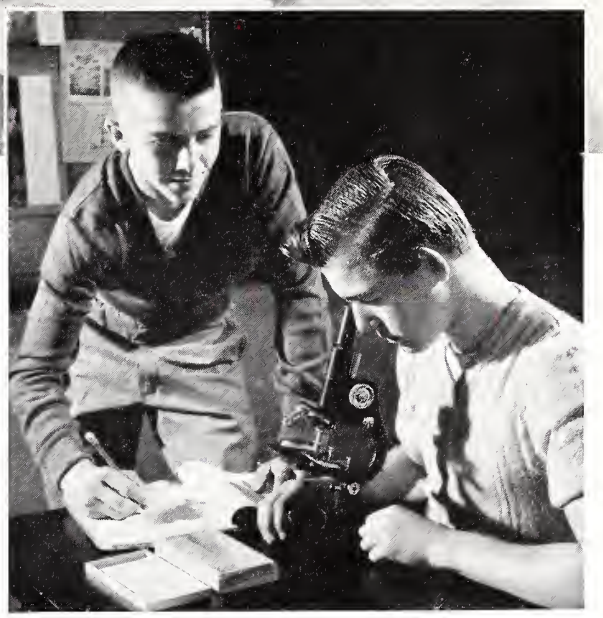
Industrial Arts Department

Big Machine Shop—Mr. D. P. Van Etten, instructor.

Geography class—Dick Thornber, John Kukla, Barbara Whitted, Pat Lawrence, Olga Nazlides.

American history—Judy Larson, Dale Krueger, Tim Abraham, Jim Kernagis, Leigh Grapenthien.

Biology class—Don Kadlec, Ellen Clark, Bonnie Fredman.



Laboratory—Gary Gardner, William Havansek.

History, Biology

Back again to the Little Theatre and the tour goes down a cross corridor to the west, past history rooms and biology labs.

In biology classes many new things were discovered or examined by students, starting from the bottom of the animal and plant kingdoms and working up to man. Many strange facts turned up under the microscope or in class lectures. Each student was busy throughout the year with his own special project concerning some phase of biology.

In history classes students learned to appreciate man and civilization as well as to understand systems of government. All eras of history were studied from the cave man through the Middle Ages and the Renaissance up to the Modern Age.

Along with historical events, classes studied such documents as the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence, rules for displaying the American flag, and the principles of the Australian ballot system.

Audio-Visual office—Denny Kueber, Don Willson, Larry Davis.

Formerly the Audio-Visual Center was located in the projection booth at the rear of the Little Theater. Now it is situated on the Little Theater stage. The new office has considerably more space for the storage of equipment than the old one had.

As one enters the door, he notices a bell that is to be rung for service. As he goes on into the office, he sees several aisles of equipment. The first aisle is the storage place for maintenance equipment; the second, receiving and shipping department; the third, film library; the fourth, film splicing section; and last, the part converted into a general office.

A smiling young leader is always on hand to serve anyone, teachers as well as students. His job is an important one.

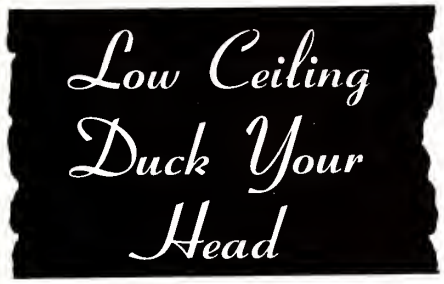
Projection booth—Ken Buck, Bob Hodge.

Through the Tunnel, into the gym

The tunnel under 150th Street was built as a passageway for students having classes in the new gym. It is also used for passing to and from all-school assemblies when the weather is bad.

There is one main tunnel under the street, but it has branches leading to various parts of the gym. The first and second branches lead to the boys locker room and also to the gym floor and swimming pool. The third branch leads to the girls locker room and to the stage gym, while the fourth one leads to the fieldhouse, girls swimming pool, and dancing room.

The tunnel is used every day by hundreds of students.



Tunnel—Ricky Nielson walks toward Eddie Gager and Joyce Loh.

Big Gymnasium

Equipment room—Don Paulson, Mr. Ed Malm.

Since Thornton is known for producing good athletic teams, the gymnasium is the place where ambitious athletes do their training. Coaches can often be found in the athletic office repeating yarns of their games. The pool is seldom without some of the human fish who bring TTHS honors. In the wrestling room the grapplers are found sweating off pounds in order to meet their weights. Basketball stars inprove their techniques on the main floor. In the locker room equipment is issued.

Coaches' office—Mr. Blaha, Mr. Robinson, Mr. DeGraff, Mr. Schloss.

Glass wall silhouettes swimmers

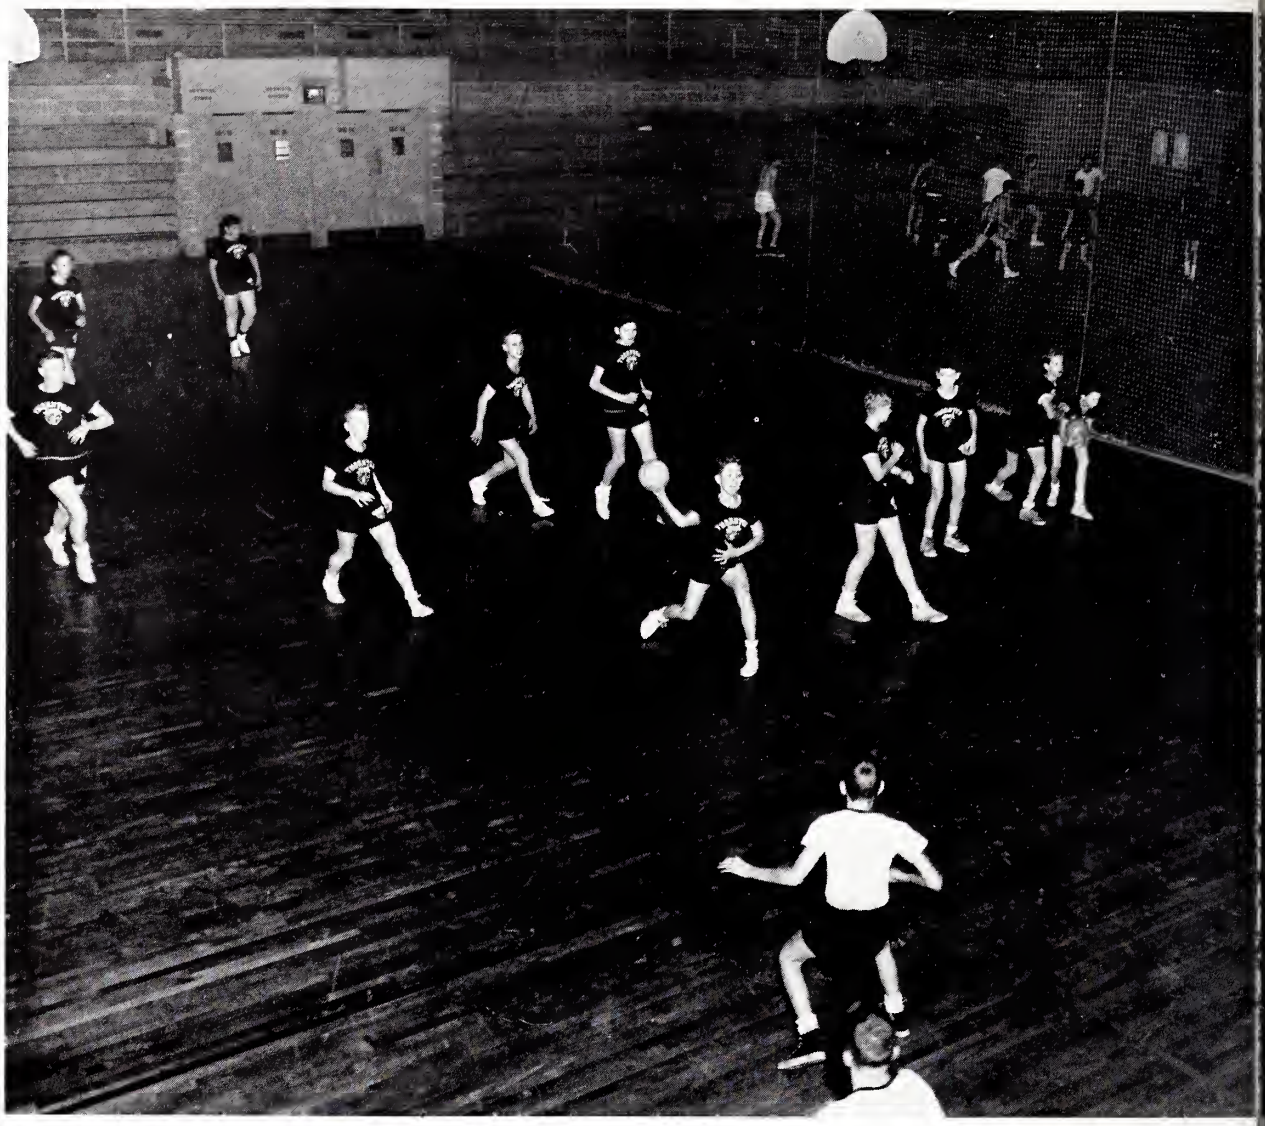
Thornton's big pool with its glass-block wall.

Assemblies, First Aid, English

All-school assembly—in the big gym. Purdue University Glee Club sings.

First Aid class—Trucy Voss, patient; Kathleen Metevia, demonstrating.

Classroom G-7—Judy Guffey, Mr. Goss, Nancy Worthey, Denny Haynes.



Dodge ball—Boys class in the big gym.

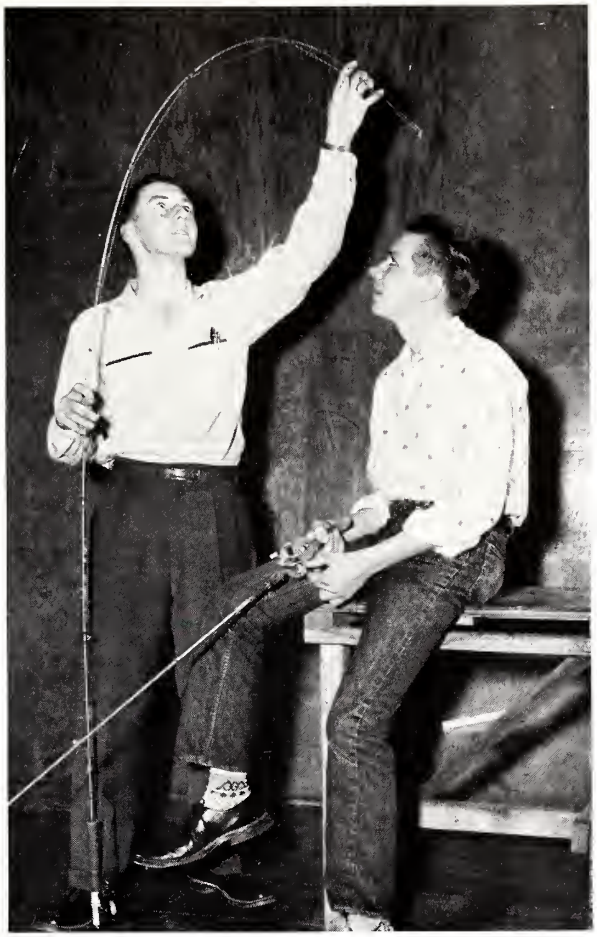
Group Sports

Thornton's boys are kept occupied in their gym classes. The physical education program includes football, basketball, tumbling, wrestling, swimming, first-aid, and health training. Besides sports, there are also a few weight-lifting classes. Boys change from one phase to another every seven weeks. The purpose of a varied physical education program, such as this, is to develop the entire body.

Parallel bars—Wayne Giese and Jerry Lannom, standing; Bob Marlowe, demonstrating.

Individual Sports

Junior and senior boys can participate in the individual sports program if they so desire. In individual sports, boys take part in whatever they are interested. Since most of these classes are at Buda Gym, students must hurry to get there on time despite the weather. During fall and spring, potential Robin Hoods practice archery. Some of the others slave on tennis courts. A few very ambitious boys get themselves in condition by running laps around the track. Golfers can practice to improve their form and fishermen in the crowd work on casting accuracy. During the winter, shuffleboard, badminton, and ping-pong are popular. Thornton's athletes, when not participating in a team sport, take part in individual sports either to learn them or just to stay in condition. The purpose of individual sports, then, is to give the upperclassmen something in which they are interested and to get them to pursue a sport as a hobby.



Individual sports—Donald Ravesloot, Gary McGehee.

Shuffleboard — Phil Yates and Bill Donahue, playing; James Burns, Dave Dillner, Ed Hoffman, Gordon Baer, watching.

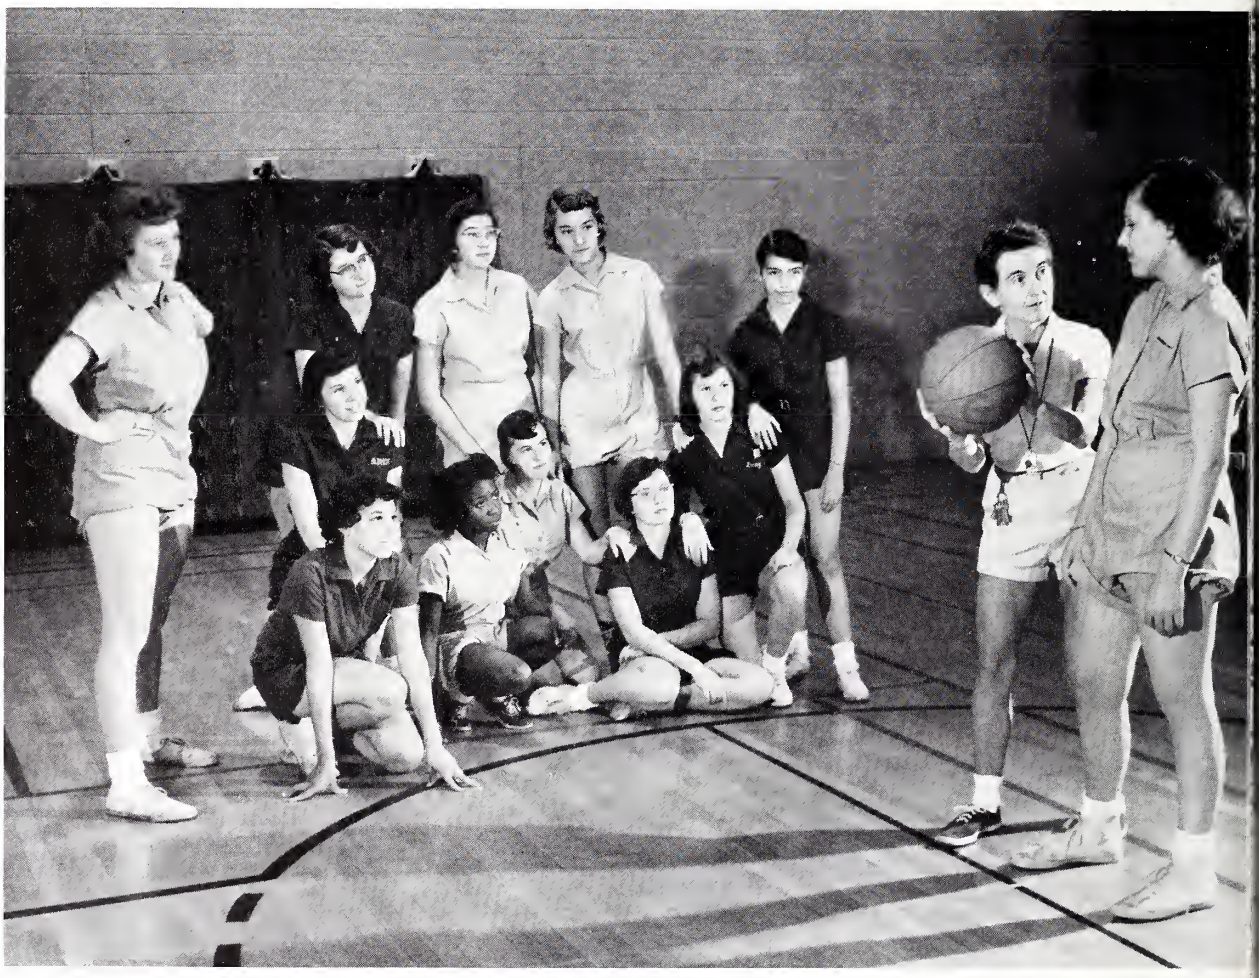
Gym, Stage, Girls Pool

Care to take a peek at a girls sport class? Maybe it is basketball or swimming or rhythms. (Anyone think square dancing isn't exercise?) In any case, there are skills to be learned. Although the periods are forty minutes long, only twenty-five are used for actual play. The rest are needed to get dressed for gym, take showers afterwards, and dress again for the next class.

Many instructions must be given to a class before girls are permitted to go into the water at all. Once a girl has mastered fundamentals, she must understand thoroughly the demonstrations of different strokes before she can take to the deep water.

Because some students have a fear of water, much student-teacher relationship is necessary to give confidence to the learner. Some students, who have never swum before, can perform beautifully at the end of the year. There is much attention paid to the boys' basketball team, but few notice the poor little girl who has spent all her time in the girls gym trying to toss a ball into the basket. Her effort is not in vain though. There are always the compliments of the gym teacher and the gym leader, who have labored unselfishly to teach her how.

Free-throw practice—Miss Coffland, Phoebe Siemon.



Swim class—Miss Falloon, Barbara Doszak.

Rhythms class—Nancy Long, Margaret Townsend, Jo Ann Sbalchiero, LaVerne Mehorczyk.

Rhythms Room

If dancing is your hobby, you will be glad to look in on the girls rhythm class. There are folk dances, square dances, interpretive dances, and many kinds of dance steps to be learned. Concentration is very important in this class because so many instructions are delivered to the class before each dance. Students are required to learn a number of widely different types of steps. Dancing is fun, but it does require cooperation and coordination. Both of these qualities must be possessed by a student before she can become a good dancer. Exercises and agility are also necessary to good dancing.

ACTIVITIES

German Club initiation—Peggy Rotkvic, George Watling, Sandra Roberts, Claude Lo Piccolo.

Language Club Initiations

Language clubs—German, French, and Spanish—are very popular at Thornton. At the beginning of the school year, humorous initiations are held. These rites consist of wearing odd-shaped hats, donning colorful costumes, and performing stunts while older members look on. Later, after introductions are over and acquaintances become friends, members take part in presenting plays, preparing and serving refreshments, and having fun together as a group.

There are many opportunities in these clubs to show qualities of leadership. Committees are appointed to present plays and to see that meetings are interesting. Officers who make it their business to see that everyone enjoys being a member are elected. Language students take part in activities that guarantee fun for everyone. Clubs meet regularly once a month and are sponsored by language teachers who supervise program planning and conduct the meetings.

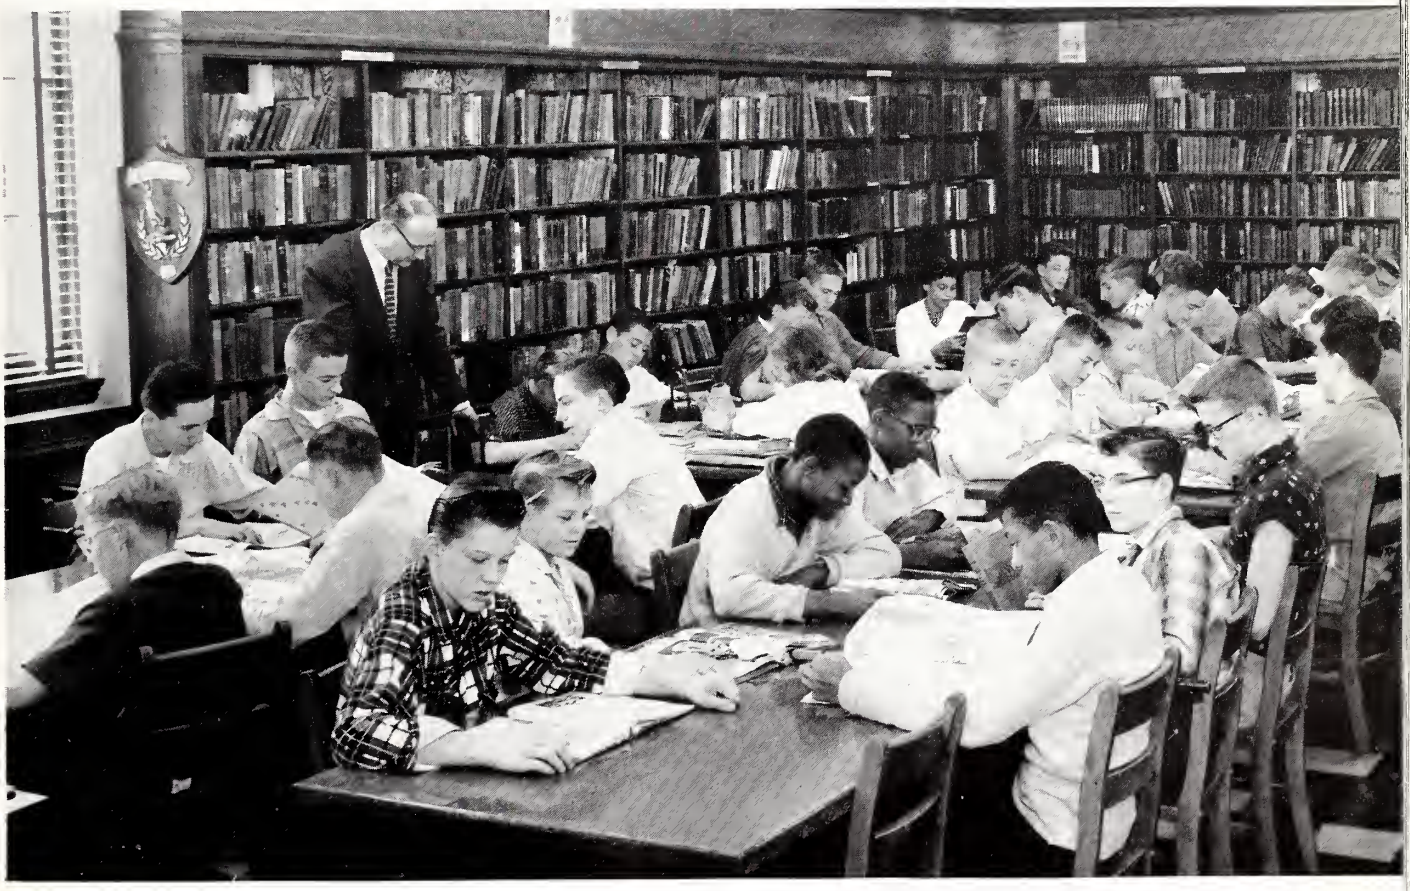
French Club initiation—Living pictures with Linda McClintock, Joan Baldwin, Mary Jo Feldes.

The library is truly an aid to many Thornton students who seek pleasure in reading and who need help in their homework assignments.

New books have been added to make a total of 13,325, a number that includes both fiction and non-fiction books. Dictionaries, encyclopedias, and periodicals give students experience in reference work. Two librarians are on hand to give advice and to supervise the functioning of the library. Most students realize that the library is a place to study or to enjoy reading books for pleasure and information. They know that books require careful handling if they are to serve as many people as possible. They know, too, that using the library is a privilege and not a right.

Library Assignments

TTHS library—Mr. Alwin, supervising.



Girls, girls, and more girls come to the annual Freshman Stand-up. This is the Girls Club way of welcoming freshman girls to Thornton. Plans start during summer in order to have the program ready to go in September.

On the day of the Stand-up, girls go from their eighth period classes to the new gym. To welcome the freshmen, sophomore, junior and senior girls form a receiving line headed by Dean Wilson and by the president and vice-president of the Girls Club. After the handshaking, one speaker from each class gives a talk. Skits by freshmen, sophomores, and juniors add humor to the program. Senior girls add glamor with the traditional style show. Another high point of the afternoon comes when the Girls Club president is crowned Stand-up Queen.

Stand-up Queen—Trucy Voss.

Freshman Stand-up

Student cast members line up for the finale.

PX Open House—Some dance, others stand around.

Purple X Open House

PX's are always well attended. These dances, held in the new gym after every home football and basketball game, are run by the Purple X committee. Tickets, available to Thornton students only, are sold in advance for twenty-five cents and at the door for fifty-cents. PX members, faculty, and parents are admitted free. Students presenting their tickets at the door are stamped on the hand to show that they have paid their admission fee.

PX members sell and take tickets, stamp hands, and check coats all evening. In the main part of the gym, many dance. Groups here and there have friendly get-togethers, tired ones take advantage of the bleachers, and thirsty ones patronize the soft drinks stand. Faculty members chaperone. At 11:30 everyone rushes for his wraps and the front door. Another open house is over.

Harvey Hoofers — Judy Wetmore, Carolyn Turngren, Edwina Walker (rear).

Homecoming

Homecoming mums — Sharon Buell, Sandy Roberts.

Refreshment crew—Sherrie Findley, Carole Fiedler Carolin Hoglund, Marcia Johnston.

Homecoming begins with an all-school pep assembly on the football field. That night comes the football game followed by the Free-Fling, similar to a PX. Saturday, students start working for the dress-up dance that night. High point of the dance is the crowning of the Homecoming king and queen by last year's royalty. A ballet dancer, honoring the court, performs her tribute. This tradition climaxes a big event at Thornton, the Homecoming Weekend.

Homecoming court—Seated: Diane Zarantonello, Marianne Grigsby, Chuck Truby, king, Mary Jo Furth, queen, Deanna Taylor, Joyce Mix. Standing: Lonnie Austin, Jack Taradash, Dale Krueger, Tom Seemayer.

King and Queen

Dancer—Sharon Depperman.

Damp fans at the Homecoming game.

Loyalty Day—Sandy Chilcott, Cleo Figley, Carol Burt.

Special Honors

Scholarship Day, held twice a year, gives recognition to all girls who have earned one semester or more of "A" in four solids, who have passing grades in all other subjects, and who have rated satisfactory citizenship. Names of those girls with seven semesters of "A" are engraved on a silver pitcher, which occupies a place of honor in the Girls Club room.

Loyalty Day is held every year at Thornton in tribute to Miss Gordon, Girls Club founder. In an assembly, the major officers and class representatives conduct a candlelighting ceremony at which time freshmen are welcomed to their new opportunities. At this assembly new girls take their Pledge of Loyalty, while other girls renew their pledges.

Prize winners, Magazine Drive—Sandy Van Swol, Audrey Antkovic, Karen Gallati, Judy Fike.

GAA Play Night—Rose Belmonti, Mr. Belmonti, Penny Lybe, Mr. Lybe.

Scholarship Day—Row 1: Barbara Burdine. Row 2: Audrey Fieldhouse, Audrey Veld. Row 3: Jane Anker, Judy Porter.

Dads and Daughters

GAA board is the governing body of the Girls Athletic Association. Any Thornton girl may become a member of GAA.

GAA sponsors several social functions during the year. A basketball banquet comes at the end of the basketball season; Dad-Daughter Play Night gives the girls a chance to ask Dad, that special boy-friend; and a picnic at the end of the year is the final affair.

Major sports are basketball, volleyball, and softball; individual sports are badminton, table tennis, and archery. The swimming program is devoted to producing the water pageant. Big and little T's are awarded for sports participation.

Cloakroom—Beverly Agler. Janice Bonnema.

Coat-Check Girls

Parties in the gym, like the junior-senior Christmas dance, "Mistletoe Magic," were always happy affairs, even when the weather wasn't kind. Sparkling mobiles and a huge Christmas tree reminded dancers of Yuletime gayety. Pretty dresses on the girls and good-looking suits on the boys were a welcome change from the nondescript, school-day clothes worn at Purple X's.

Junior-Senior Dance

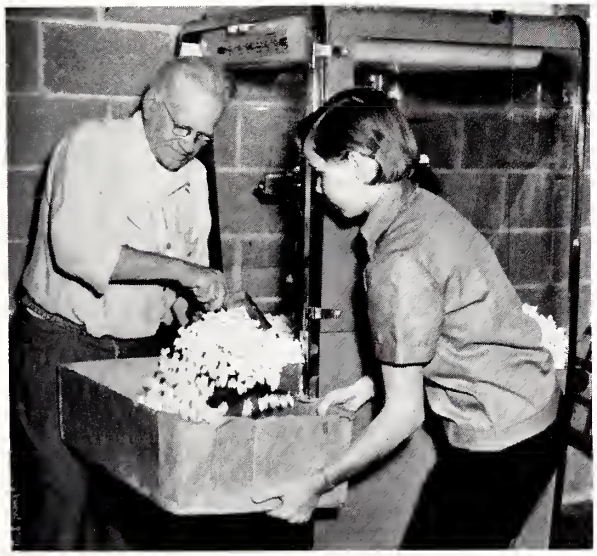
Carol Singers, Popcorn Vendors

Gym Jam—Mr. Ray Lilley and Judy Masters.



Madrigal Singers dressed in colorful old-fashioned costumes have become a Christmas tradition at TTHS. Each year they make their appearance at the Sunday afternoon Christmas concert of the Music Department. Then comes the repeat performance at an all-school assembly. On the last afternoon before school closes for the holiday, the carollers stroll through the halls of Thornton, singing their reminders that Christmas has almost arrived.

Somebody always had to help backstage to make the party a success. Not everyone could be master of ceremonies, an entertainer, or one of the dancers. Somebody had to help with coat-check rooms, refreshments, and clean-up the next day. And there was always Mrs. Hodge to help the girls who needed that very important "stitch in time."

Dad-Daughter Dinner—Mr. Gross, Mr. Pearson, Mr. Lave, Ann Lave, Karen Pearson, Sharon Gross.

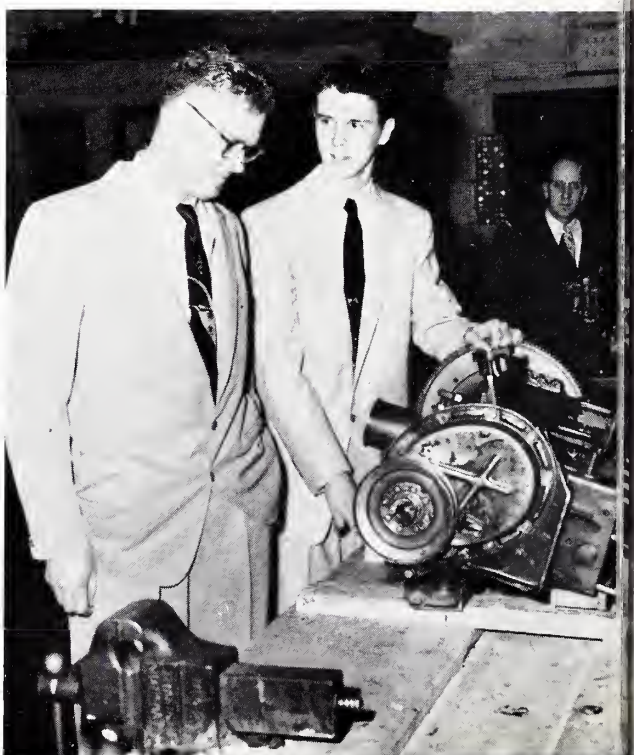
Dads and Daughters Again

Two weekends a year Thornton students honor their fathers. The Girls Club is first, giving the Dad-Daughter Banquet. This year it was October 22. "Fall Harvest" was the theme. Marilyn Sudds served as toastmistress, and Mary Jane Fritz said "Grace." Anne Gordon and her father, Mr. R. S. Gordon, were mistress and master of ceremonies. Upper classmen were represented by Marianne Grigsby; lower classmen by Mary Rowe. Girls and fathers provided entertainment in a well-planned stage show.

Father-Son Stag

Next, the Boys Club honored their dads at the Father-Son Stag on January 28. Captain William Mott of the United States Navy was the guest speaker. The Industrial Arts shops were open for inspection.

Father-Son Stag—Mr. Yates, Phil Yates.



Style Show Models—Sarah Denison (front), Nancy Hallett, Bonnie Petersen, Judy Muench, Shirley Prater, Inez Pagel.

Home Economics Style Show

Homemaking Department's annual Mother-Daughter Style Show was held January 19, this year.

Plans for the event included a tea for faculty guests and mothers of the girls and a style show afterwards.

Approximately one hundred forty girls, from homemaking classes taught by Miss Elizabeth Ford, Miss Marie Gantzert, and Mrs. Olivia Pennington, modeled their styles.

Miss Wilma Reed and Miss Margaret Miles were in charge of the tea in the homemaking apartment. Sandwiches, cookies, and spiced tea were served.

Some of the outstanding creations were modeled by Shirley Armond, blue cotton skirt and blouse; Barb Ballard, summer skirt and blouse; Iva Jean Rodgers, pink cotton blouse; Martha Perry, checked tweed suit; Janice Bonnema, gold velveteen dress, jacket, and hat; Mary Ann Molnar, charcoal flecked box suit; Sarah Denison, green velveteen formal.

Play practice—Lynne Harris, Mr. Steele, Marcia Hall.

A Play, a Tea

Full length and one-act plays are the dramatic activities at Thornton. Designers plan the scenery and boys build it. Actors put on the performance, but backing them up are prompters, costume and make-up committees, and stage hands. "The Curse of an Aching Heart," staged by the Boys and Girls Clubs, November 18 and 19, used students from all classes, but the senior play, "Papa Is All," was strictly a class affair. One-act plays were projects of the Footlighters Club.

Girls Club faculty tea always gives the major and minor officers a chance to get better acquainted with their favorite teachers. The Homemaking Department bakes the cookies and makes the tea.

Faculty tea—Mrs. Dierdorff, pouring; Ruth Olson, hostess; Mrs. Salkeld, guest.

A Game, a Dance

A familiar scene at a basketball game is players huddled around the coach. When Nez gives instructions, he does so in no uncertain terms.

Traditionally the student council puts on the Valentine dance. This year it was "Cupid's Capers" on February 11. The decoration committee started early Saturday morning putting up mobiles of cupids and hearts. In the center was a life-size cupid outlined by an enormous red heart. Meanwhile the entertainment groups were practicing on the stage.

When couples arrived that evening, girls received bids and stepped into the beautifully decorated gym to dance. After the show, refreshments of cokes and little white cakes with red hearts were served in the balcony.

Flag Day

Flag Day — beginning of Commencement week ceremonies.

Yearbooks

Flag Day is a tradition of many years standing at Thornton. Over the years, a series of pictures, all taken from the same vantage point, show the gap between the trees getting narrower. The entire student body and faculty gather on the campus. As the senior class marches out and takes its place in a circle around the flagpole, a silence falls over the crowd. The president of the senior class turns the American flag over to those who make up the next senior class. The Flag is placed on the rope and raised as the band plays the national anthem. When the band has finished, the group salutes the Flag and a tribute is made in its honor.

Honors Day is a memorable one both for those who receive honors and for their parents. Athletic, activitity, and contest awards are announced at an all-school assembly, along with scholarship winners and the names of the newly elected National Honor Society members. After the assembly, new NHS members and their parents attend a reception given by the old members.

Graduation time is exciting for the prospective graduates as well as for the other classes who take part. Seniors march in wearing their caps and gowns and led by two faculty members and two junior guides, scholastically highest in the class. Graduation ushers, also juniors, are high in scholarship.

Student Council

Girls Club, Boys Club, KIP, and Purple X are known as Thornton's Big Four. These major organizations are student governing bodies of TTHS.

Girls Club was organized to help Thornton girls get better acquainted by working together on banquets, parties, welfare, a dance, activity points, group meetings, service awards, and marshaling at club assemblies.

All Thornton boys may join the Boys Club. When they do, they receive pins and membership cards. As members of the organization, they are entitled to attend some of the biggest events of the year which are the Mother-Son Banquet and the Father-Son Stag.

KIP is Thornton's student council. The letters represent the school motto, "Knowledge is power." Every Thornton student automatically becomes a member when he enters high school. KIP gives all students a voice in school government.

Purple X

Purple X is a committee of students and faculty whose purpose is to provide recreation after home football and basketball games. New members are selected each year by the old members to replace those who graduate.

Boys Club board — Row 1: Tom Rossing, Jack Taradash, Ron Kuykendall. Row 2: Bart Pettice, Ken Scott.

Big Four Boards

Boys Club board is the governing body of the club. It has one freshman, two sophomore, three junior, and four senior members. Boys elect their officers and help Dean Umbaugh all they can.

Purple X committee provides recreation after home games. Purple stands for one of the school colors and X, for the unlimited services the group can perform.

Lost and Found—Judy Duckworth, Sharon Gross, Barbara Boudreau, Diane Thornton.

Kip Forum

KIP forum is the representative group in the student council. Members of the forum are elected in the fall of the year, one from each homeroom, and act as two-way reporters for their groups. They relay to homerooms the discussions in monthly forum meetings, and they take to those meetings suggestions made in homerooms.

This year the forum was under the leadership of Ron Alwin, KIP vice-president. Planning the gym jams was one of the big jobs of the group. Over a thousand students attended the affairs.

Lost and Found

Misplaced books, pens, and articles of clothing make their way into the Lost and Found, a KIP project. Unclaimed articles are turned over to the Red Cross or CARE for disposition.

K I P chairman—Janet Walberg, Christmas card; Joan Webster, game buses; Tim Abraham, cafeteria; Jack Taradash, poster contest; Sandra McNair, room committee; Joyce Mix, sportsmanship.

Committees

During the year KIP formed several committees to work for the benefit of students. KIP sponsored buses to out-of-town football and basketball games. A committee was organized to promote good sportsmanship at games. KIP sponsored a poster contest with the purpose of making the cafeteria a more pleasant place during lunch hour. Special committees were appointed for major events like homecoming.

Homecoming

Many Thorntonites generously gave their time endeavoring to make Homecoming pleasant for alumni and students. Much hard work was put into the pep assembly on the football field the afternoon before the game. For recreation afterwards, a KIP committee planned an open house. Committees worked on decorations for the gym and assembled entertainment for the big dance. Elections preceded the coronation of the Homecoming king and queen.

Hall Guard Organization

Hall Guard captains—Row 1: Bill Smart, period 6; Tom Walvoord, period 8; Donald Cooley, period 1. Row 2: Art Erikson, period 2; Dale Krueger, period 4; Raymond Balsam, period 5. Row 3: Roger Tammen, period 7; Jack Stroh, period 4; Paul Golaszewski, period 3.

Hall Guard Organization, sponsored by the Boys Club, is an important part of Thornton. These are the boys whose job is to police the halls during class periods.

Boys are assigned to posts throughout the school, the campus, and on buses. They see that cleanliness and quiet is maintained in the halls during classes, assist visitors in finding their way around the school, and sometimes lend a helping hand to a lost freshman. Keeping the campus clean and helping to enforce safety rules are also among their duties.

There are bus guards who, on their daily routes, see to it that discipline and safety are practiced during the runs.

Hall Guard captains are the boys who are responsible for the carrying out of orders. They check to see that all posts are filled at all times and add more boys if needed. They also make reports to the hall guard officers as to how their groups are doing.

If, while you are walking down the hall, someone stops you with "Pass please," you will know these boys are on the job.

Guard Officers

Officers of the Hall Guard Organization have responsible jobs.

The commander-in-chief presides over all meetings. The assistant commander takes over in the absence of the commander. The lieutenant commander acts as secretary at all meetings, and the quartermaster is the treasurer.

Bus Captains

Bus Guard officers make sure students observe safety rules on their rides to and from school.

The captain of each route maintains order on his bus and keeps a list of the other guards to make sure they do their duty.

Reports are turned in to the head captain, who makes any suggestions or criticisms if they are necessary.

Bus Guard captains—Row 1: Joe Masier, Tom Nichols, Larry Davis, Norman Krikau. Row 2: Quin Morrison, Albert Peterson, Wayne Horgesheimer, James Vyverberg.

Jobs, Money,

Thornton's Diversified Occupations or D.O. program helps boys to learn by doing. Boys have part-time jobs during school hours for which they get regular school credit. In addition, they have classes the rest of the day. The program gets its name from the diversity of trades available—practically as many as there are boys.

Girls Club supports many charities and funds for which the members raise money by a variety of projects. One of these is the annual magazine drive. Another is the Christmas tag sale. To the latter was added, this year, a sale of Christmas ornaments. In addition to having these money making projects, girls visit hospitals to bring cheer to shut-ins.

Girls Club projects—Ann Lave, ornaments; Joan Wilkinson, ornaments; Mary Rowe, magazines; Kathleen DeYoung, magazines.

Musical Arts Club officers—Row 1: Carol Lanham, president. Row 2: Ruth Hand, secretary; Judy Grzesik, vice-pres.; Phoebe Siemon, treasurer; Joan Spooner, historian.

Girls Club Chairmen

Girls Club chairmen are those girls elected or appointed to keep the club running smoothly. There is a chairman for every Girls Club activity; such as activity points, Oak Forest, assembly marshals, welfare, big sisters, guides, typists, and refreshment crew. Girls receive awards for these activities. They set examples for other girls. Because of their ability in leadership and guidance, they assist the major officers and the dean.

Nurses Assistants

Nurses Assistants are Thornton girls who help the regular school nurses by taking temperatures, giving pills, and keeping records. Working in a medical office is valuable experience.

Those who want to specialize may join the Medical Arts Club, where they learn more about the theory and practice of nursing.

Library Assistants

May Queen Court

Girls Club May Queen Court—Row 1: Carol Burt, Deanna Taylor, Joyce Mix, Leola Poppel. Row 2: Pat Lawrence, Mary Jo Furth, maid of honor, Diane Zarantonello, queen, Marianne Grigsby, Carolin Hoglund. Row 3: Janet Walberg, Sandy Mc Nair, Jo Ellen Liggins, Trucy Voss.

Library Club officers—Row 1: Sue Berke, president; Ed Hoffman, vice-president. Row 2: Loretta Ustian, treasurer; Phyllis Chadwick, representative; Barbara Bielecki, secretary.

Library Club

Library Club, made up of all students who work in the library during study hall periods or before and after school, was organized to enable these assistants to meet and discuss ways and means of improving library atmosphere. The club is a member of the South Suburban Library Assistants Organization. Besides working in the TTHS library and having their own meetings, the group meet with other schools to discuss library work.

United Nations Club

United Nations Club is an organization at which current events, domestic and national problems are discussed. This year, delegates attended the UN Festival, sponsored through the UN Organization itself. One of the activities of the club was participating in a contest sponsored by the American Association for the United Nations, a contest covering the structure of the United Nations.

United Nations Club—Row 1: John Henry, treasurer; Dolores Bronecke, president; Ann Mc Caghey, vice-president.

JRC's really worked, but enjoyed it! Junior Red Cross, helped by students, sent parties-in-a-box to hospitals and sent school and health supplies to other countries. Another project was making an album depicting life at TTHS through pictures and sending it to a Japanese school. Representatives not only attended the Conference of Christians and Jews but lead two discussion groups.

Pedagogs FTA

Pedagogs is one of several small but growing clubs at Thornton. It is an enthusiastic group affiliated with Future Teachers of America. By inviting guest speakers, usually teachers, to come to their meetings and give talks, members learn from the experiences of others, the essentials of education and teaching. Guests range from kindergarten to college teachers and from general teaching to very specialized jobs.

Pedagogs officers— Gerrie Palumbo, treasurer; Louise Olson, secretary; Janet Williams, president; Mabra Hebert, vice-president.

Bookstore Clerks

Speaking of work, bookstore clerks keep busy with such things as clerical practice, checking stock with purchase slips, delivering supplies to different parts of TTHS, stocking shelves, and, of course, selling supplies that students need during the school term. They are headquarters for bus and rental tickets.

Bookstore Assistants — Judy Ahlberg, Charles Bateson, Margaret Oppelt, Harvey Hall.

National Honor Society

National Honor Society members are elected in either their junior or senior year, from the upper fifteen percent of the class. Highest ranking are chosen at the end of their junior year; others, at the end of their senior year. Announcement is made on Honors Day. Besides scholarship, NHS members must have character and leadership, plus service to the school.

National Honor Society officers—Row 1: Lois Holtgren, treasurer, Joyce Mix, secretary. Row 2: James Harvey, vice president; Alan Petty, president.

Chess Club

Chess Club is a busy organization of thirty members. This new club at TTHS is one of the members of the Greater Suburban High School Conference. The better players go to various schools, in groups of five, to compete in tournaments, while others get together and have tournaments among themselves. Anyone who plays chess or checkers is welcome to attend the regular meetings, even to kibitz.

Chess Club officers—Row 1: Alan Bardwick, president; Bob Dearborn, publicity. Row 2: George Zimmerman, vice-president; Ron Lewis, treasurer; Sharon Kelley, secretary.

Projection Squad

Projection Squad is comprised of boys who will give up free periods to show movies to classes or other groups. Squad members must have some knowledge of the mechanics of projectors for they often need repair. Backstage in the Little Theatre is the location of their office and workshop.

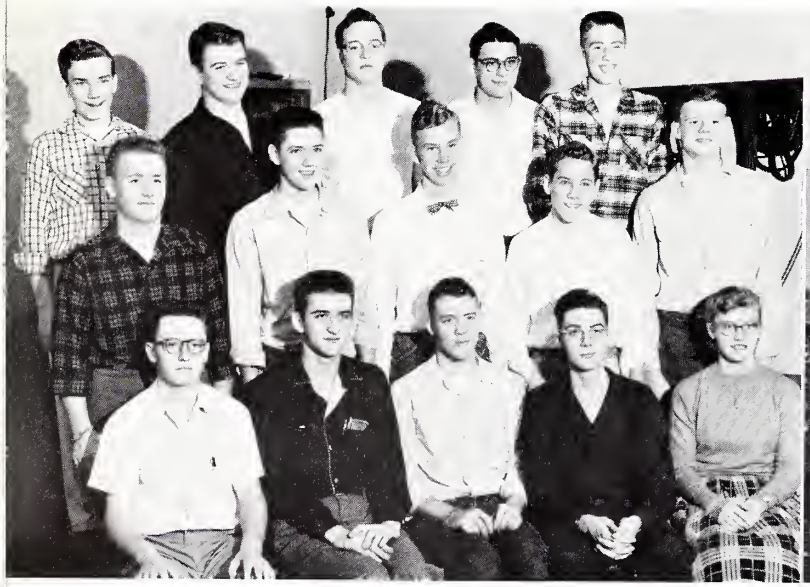
Camera Club

Camera Club is made up of students who wish to acquire technical knowledge on taking pictures, developing them, and printing them. Club members also have access to a well-equipped darkroom, which is in the school basement. Each person is given a chance to enter the National Photo Contest, an annual affair. Every other week the group meets to discuss techniques and to exchange ideas on pictures.

Camera Club officers—Row 1: Lynn Hamilton, treasurer; Dorothy Bejgrowicz, vice-president; Vickie Sarna, secretary. Row 2: Larry Davis, president; John Grimes, program chairman.



Debate Club officers—Barbara Nolan, president; Susie Hunt, treasurer; Judy Grosky, membership; Von Allen Carlisle, vice-president; Carol Owen, program; Robert Dearborn, publicity.

Hi-C Club officers—Row 1: Arlene Steigman, corresponding secretary; Marion Kala, recording secretary; Dawn Voelker, treasurer. Row 2: Donald Schnake, vice-president; Mary Jane Fritz, president.

Debate Club

For Thorntonites who wish to argue intelligently, there is the Debate Club.

Background knowledge on a variety of subjects, ready recall, logical organization, and convincing delivery are among the qualities the club tries to develop in its members.

Hi-C Club

Hi-Crusaders are one of Thornton's most enterprising and well organized clubs. Development of Christian ideals through devotions, singing, and good fun is a feature of their meetings. Enthusiasm of the members carries over into other school activities.

Harvey Hoofers

Harvey Hoofers is Thornton's tap-dancing organization. Its chorus line appears at all of the major social events at TTHS, making everyone laugh with the cute dance routines.

Each year new girls are added to replace those who graduate. Everyone must be a solo dancer as well as a good group performer.

Harvey Hoofers—Carolyn Halley, accompanist, Ann Henderson, head hoofer, Gerrie Nielson, Carolyn Turngren, Edwina Walker, Shirley Stroh, Flora Lee Jones, Judy Wetmore.

Newspaper Staff

The 1955-56 school year found the newspaper staff working hard and enthusiastically to publish the weekly Thorntonite.

Obtaining advertising, interviewing teachers and students, figuring column inches, and writing feature stories were just a few of their jobs. They found that publishing a newspaper meant a lot of hard work, but in return developed a good sense of responsibility.

Bob Dearborn, advertising; George Zimmermann, business manager.

Tom Kee, Marilyn Detweiler, editors-in-chief.

Yearbook Staff

A separate staff was organized this year to work on the yearbook. Always before the same group had handled both the weekly and annual publications. Now, editorial and business matters for the yearbook alone kept them jumping.

Monitoring underclass groups for picture-taking, making senior picture appointments, and typing endless numbers of identification slips was the first order of business. Then came the selling of eighty pages of advertising. After that, locating copy and compiling an index was a simple matter. Distribution of books to students and advertisers at the end of the year made them feel they had earned their graduation.

Phil Brooks, advertising manger; Ann Henderson, solicitor.

Lorraine Tracy, identifications; Jim DeYoung, sports; Carolyn Halley, pictures.

Lighting Crew

Stage lighting crew was under the guidance of the two dramatics coaches, Mr. Essen and Mr. Steele. The crew produced all the necessary lighting effects needed during plays, dances, and the variety show. Some of the equipment they used was the large spotlight in the balcony of the auditorium, the cellophane filters of different colors, and the spotlights in the big gym.

Stage Crew

Memorizing lines of the play was important, but so was the job of the stage hands. This crew made the scenery for the plays, and worked backstage during the performances. Sponsors of the group were Mr. Essen and Mr. Steele. As a result of the hard work put into making of scenery, stage settings looked authentic. Gathering props was another of their jobs.

Boys, Girls Club Play

"The Curse of An Aching Heart," presented by the Boys and Girls Clubs, was a three-act comedy, giving a modern treatment of an old "meller drama," complete with lovely girl, muscular hero, and ferocious villain. Every time Windemere Hightower tried to capture the heart of Melody Lane, he was foiled by the noble Lucius.

Play Managers—Row 1: Kay Hopman, Al Pinger. Row 2: Llyn Lloyd, Judy Lyon.

Cast of "Curse of an Aching Heart"—Peter Melonds as Windemere Hightower, Penny DeMack as Lucius, Judy Beck as Battle-axe Annie, Marcia Hall as Nellie Blythe, Peggy Rotkvic as Red Wing, Carla Fisher as Muriel Atkins, Ernest Norden as Aloysius, Marianne Wahlen as Aurelia Abernathy, Sue Chilton as Sarah Abernathy, Robert Havice as Hiram, Ann McCaghey as Melody Lane.

Leads—Penny DeMack as Lucius, Ann McCaghey as Melody Lane, Peter Melonds as Windemere Hightower.

The successful performances on November 18 and 19 were the result of hours of arduous practice. The cast concentrated first on memorizing, then on suiting actions to lines. Coaches had to watch that timing was exact and voices and gestures convincing. Play managers had their part in selling tickets and reserving seats.

Girls Club Dance

"The Tender Trap" of song and movie fame was the theme of this year's Girls Club dance on the evening of March 10, a girl-ask-boy affair.

Girls Club Dance-Sherrie Findley and Al Pinger in the stage show.

Senior Play

"Papa Is All," a comical story of a Pennsylvania Dutch family, was chosen by the seniors for their annual play. The drama, presented February 24 and 25, featured a tyrannical father whose wife, son, and daughter rebelled. Mr. Steele and Mr. Essen were in charge.

"Papa Is All"—Gaylene Lundmark as Emma; Anne Gordon, Mama; John Grimes, Papa; Bob Dearborn, State trooper; John Tripp, Jake; Lois Ryd, Mrs. Yoder.

Play leads—Ann Gordon as Mama and John Grimes as Papa.

Language Clubs

Hundreds of Thornton students belong to language clubs and take an active part in them. Clubs get into full swing with their yearly election of officers in the fall. Immediately following comes initiation of new members. Largest party of the year is in December when members have a chance to practice Christmas customs of the country they are studying. Speakers, skits, movies, games, and refreshments make of each meeting a new and interesting way to learn about life, customs, and holidays of foreign neighbors. Monthly meetings are held after school on Wednesdays in the Little Theater and are planned by students with the guidance and supervision of faculty sponsors.

Spanish Club officers—Row 1: Viv Kajdy, music; Denise Lloyd, refreshments; Carol Strobo, treasurer. Row 2: Ernest Norden, president; Brian Romer, membership; Carolyn Halley, secretary.

French Club officers—Row 1: Bonnie Reinders, refreshments; Diane Zarantonello, president; Marilyn Sudds, vice-president; Ann Lave, treasurer. Row 2: Camille Kloskowski, asst. treasurer; Joan Baldwin, program; Ken Hansen, stage manager; Lynette Eke, program; Gaylene Lundmark, secretary. Row 3: Carolyn Cory, refreshments; David Cornwell, asst. secretary; Willie Johnson, stage manager; Ken Ferguson, stage manager.

German Club officers—Row 1: Bob Doster, president; Ron Williams, treasurer; Peggy Rotkvic, secretary. Row 2: Ken Lowenberg, program; Mary Schroeder, 2nd vice-president; Bill Jouris, program; James Harvey, program; Bonnie Johnson, 1st vice-president.

Band officers—Row 1: Carol Burt, secretary; Janet Zander, president. Row 2: Lois Holtgren, treasurer; Robert Lagestee, vice-president.

Orchestra officers—John Tripp, president; Phil Yates, vice-president; Sue Rodenberg, secretary; Edward Watson, treasurer.

Instrumental Groups

Instrumental music at Thornton has two objectives: to develop music appreciation and to provide wholesome activities. Varsity Band, JV Band, and Orchestra make up this department.

Fathers and mothers, organized under the name of Band and Orchestra Parents, help the groups to raise money and to take care of uniforms.

TTHS orchestra was founded in 1918. It trains students for the study and appreciation of concert music. The group performs for high school and junior college plays, Spring Festival, Christmas Concert, Optimist Forum, and school assemblies.

Thornton furnishes its share of members for the Chicago Youth Orchestra and other symphonies. From this group, too, are chosen ensembles to play at music contests and to participate in community music affairs.

Orchestra, Thorntoneers

At one time or another every Thorntonite has heard the music played by these fifteen musicians. They play for Purple X dances and other school parties.

Jim French is leader of the dance band and Quin Morrison, the business manager.

Marching Band

Ever since Thornton's band was founded in 1916, it has been adding color to school events. During football season the band puts on halftime shows at home games. When basketball season comes around, the band is divided into two pep groups which alternate at all home games. A pep assembly wouldn't be complete without the band to boost spirits.

Concert Band

In December of each year the concert band is chosen. They are a smaller and more select group than the marching band. They perform at school plays and assemblies, community forums, the Spring Festival, and the Band Concert. No tour like the one to Washington, D.C., last year was planned for this year, but there are big hopes for next year.

The school year of 1955-56 marked a very important event in band history—the 25th Annual Band Concert. The noted Lieutenant Colonel William F. Santelmann, retired leader of the United States Marine Band, was guest conductor. This was a special honor, for the Marine Band is the President's own band, and plays for all White House social functions. The Thornton group practiced many weeks, with Saturday rehearsals, to be extra good for this appearance.

The year finished with the band playing for the high school commencement. For the Senior members, this was the last time they would play with the band.

Madrigal Singers

One of Thornton's best choral groups is the Madrigal Singers—boys and girls chosen from the Mixed Chorus.

All of the student body like to watch this group perform, especially at the Christmas Concert, when they are dressed in old fashioned clothes and sing some of the wonderful old Christmas carols.

Girls Glee Club

Girls Glee Club has grown so large that it has been divided into two sections, both for better training and for better scheduling of classes. After girls have had their initial training in Freshman Girls Glee Club, they are eligible for Girls Glee Club or Girls Choir. Here they learn many of the tricks that go into successful choral singing. Miss Mary P. Thompson is the director.

Row 5: Carol Hardeway, Diane Peterson, Judy Ritter, Marjory Tilton, Theresa Christopher, Sharon Kuykendall, Sharon Overman, Betty Bodie, Andrea Seely.

The Keydets

Keydets, another top choral group at THS, consists of singers chosen from the Girls Choir. Under the direction of Miss Mary P. Thompson, they provide the musical atmosphere for many of the Girls Club assemblies. They have also sung in many events outside the school. They participate in the Christmas Concert and the Spring Festival.

Choral Groups

Many Thorntonites are interested in music when they enter TTHS as freshmen; so they are given a chance to be part of the choral groups.

Girls may choose Freshman Girls Glee Club, Glee Club, or Girls Choir, all under the direction of Miss Mary P. Thompson. Boys may join the Boys Glee Club under the direction of Mr. Walter Armbruster. Advanced singers are eligible for Mixed Chorus.

Christmas Concert

Once again the Christmas Concert was opened with the Mixed Chorus singing the traditional "Good Christian Men, Rejoice."

All music groups participated in the affair and the orchestra supplied the accompaniment. Choral groups sang all the beautiful old Christmas carols and some of the novelties of the day. At the close of the program, the audience joined in the singing of carols.

The concert was presented Sunday afternoon for the public and parts of it were presented again Monday morning for the student body at an all-school assembly.

Freshman Girls Glee Club—Row 1: Donna Graeber, Judith Patterson, Carol Mosser, Carol Thate, Janet Knol, Judy Bosvai, Karen Evers. Mixed Chorus

After boys and girls have had some previous training in music, they are permitted to try out for the Mixed Chorus. Besides participating in school events like the Christmas Concert and the Spring Festival, they have taken part in many community affairs.

Freshman Girls

Thorntonites like to sing, as the big choral groups at TTHS would indicate. Boys join the Boys Glee Club. For girls there is the Freshman Girls Glee Club. These boys and girls may later advance to the Madrigal Singers, Mixed Chorus, or the Keydets.

ATHLETICS

Twirler Corps

Much of the good spirit at football games can be attributed to the twirler corps. They led the band in formations at half-time performances. During the basketball season their duties were much the same, but without the cold fingers. New uniforms were bought to keep the twirlers in style. These majorettes spent many long hours practicing to perfection under the careful eye of the band director, Mr. Lyle Hopkins.

Cheerleaders

Building up school spirit was the tough burden given to the cheerleaders last fall. Now they can be proud of their work. The spirit of the TTHS fans kept up team morale against rugged competition. These hard-working gals urged the fans to cheer at the games and at all the pep assemblies. Backing up the varsity cheerleaders were the junior varsity, who helped the sophomore football and basketball teams do their best. Cheerleading also meant practice to improve the cheering. Much of the credit for their success must go to Miss Connie Leonard, their adviser.

Lettermen's Club

Being a member of the Lettermen's Club is an honor for the more distinguished athletes at Thornton. Purpose of the club is the establishment of better standards in high school sportsmanship. Each year this club sponsors a banquet for all the athletes of the school. Club members sell programs at every home football game and refreshments at home basketball games.

Game Ushers

Each home football and basketball game presented many problems to the ushers. They had to restore order when fans became restless but received much cooperation from the considerate spectators. When other trouble occurred, their services were equal to the situation. These fellows deserve many compliments for their work. Their adviser is Mr. Ted Sturm.

Thornton's football Wildcats again received honors in 1955, although the conference crown did slip through their fingers. Chuck Truby, an end, Mark Hanson, center, and Julie Hayes, back, were named to the all-South Suburban grid team. Truby's leadership, determination, and superior play earned him a spot on the All-State team.

The Wildcats got off to a shaky start, but recovered as the league play started. They lost the first two games. Morgan Park slipped past by the slim margin of 7 - 6 and highly ranked Elgin did a little better, winning 13 - 7. The Cats traveled to Argo to win the first conference game 13 - 0. Blue Island, the SSL champs, played to a 6 - 6 tie on a muddy field. Lockport fell 27 - 0, but the Trojans of Bloom gave Thornton boys a taste of defeat, 24 - 6. Then Kankakee was crushed 21 - 0, Leyden fell 16 - 13, and Fractional lost 28 - 7!

The Frosh-Soph football team had an outstanding year. The coaches, Melvin De Graff and Jack Robinson, guided the team to eight wins and one loss. This squad showed great improvement as compared with their record last year.

Wildcats got off to a good start when they dumped Morgan Park in the opener 15 - 6 and then went out and beat Elgin 18 - 6. The Kits' sharp claws gave Argo a 26 - 6 mauling in their first conference tilt. The boys managed to slip past Blue Island 6 - 0. The next week the Kits whipped Lockport 25 - 0. Bloom handed the Sophs their one loss, 21 - 12, which placed the Kits second to the "Young Trojans" in the league standings. Looking for revenge, the Kittens came back fighting as they beat Kankakee 13 - 0. The season's end was good with victories over Leyden and Fractional, 14 - 7 and 27 - 6, respectively.

The Freshman football team had a record of 2 wins and 4 losses during the 1955 season. The biggest game came first, when they rolled over Argo 34 - 6. The next week Blue Island won 13 - 0, but Lockport was throttled 7 - 0. Then came three consecutive losses. They fell to Fractional 13 - 6; Bloom won 14 - 0; and Leyden beat them 20 - 6.

The JV squad had a profitable season. They had 3 wins and 2 losses. Four of the games were decided by the extra points. The first game was a 20 - 13 victory over Evanston. Then Rich slipped past the boys by a 14 - 13 score, but they got back in the winning ways by a 7 - 6 triumph over Blue Island. The JV's stopped Bloom 14 - 12, however, but in the final game lost to Leyden 14 - 12. The juniors on the JV squad showed up very well, along with the juniors who played varsity, making next year's prospects quite bright. The soph squad can also add strength to the varsity next fall.

Rich Brown drives by Fractional opponent as Jim Yavenue (11) watches. Thornton beat the Meteors 64-62 as Brown led both teams in scoring with 25 points.

Basketball

Wildcats had a fairly good basketball season, considering that Coach Nisbet had only four returning lettermen from last year's quintet. This team ended the year with a record of 12 wins and 13 losses, and a tie for second in the conference standings.

Thornton had a well-balanced attack with Captain Al Petty, Bob Miller, Jim Yavenue, and Rich Brown leading in scoring. Miller, who broke the individual record by scoring 37 points in a single game, was named to the All-League five. Brown was placed on the second team; he played very well defensively.

The team showed spirit that Thornton fans had not seen in the past few years. Although this was not a tall squad, their teamwork and determination was too much for many opponents.

Sophomores

Thornton's sophomore basketball team ended their season with a record of eleven wins and nine losses. The Wildkittens had a shaky start, but developed into a first-rate quintet as the season progressed. Although the sophomores were not an exceptionally tall team, they did a good job of rebounding. Coach Blaha depended on the reserves by substituting freely.

The Sophs beat Fractional, 54-37 and 70-40; Bloom, 45-42; Rich, 54-43; Blue Island, 52-47; Argo, 55-22 and 49-44; Kankakee, 56-53; Lockport, 49-20; and Elgin, 60-57. They lost to Moline, 37-54; Proviso, 35-46; Blue Island, 50-51; Bloom, 35-48; La Grange, 52-55; Kankakee, 53-56; Leyden, 36-57 and 54-55; and Riverside, 37-46.

The Kittens were well balanced in scoring. Ed Radtke, Jerry Lotz, and Walter Grayson were high men. Radtke was a superb ball handler and Grayson sparkled defensively. Lotz was one of the most improved players on the squad.

Walt Grayson, sophomore forward, makes a bounce-pass around Fractional player's legs during one of their best games, winning 70-40.

Ken Scott appears seated while dribbling, as Walt Grayson (21) screens Franctional man. Thornton won, 70-40.

Freshmen

Thornton's freshman basketball squad had a season with few bright spots; their final record was four wins and eight defeats. The frosh team was coached by Mr. Sterling Scott, who was in his first year as freshman coach.

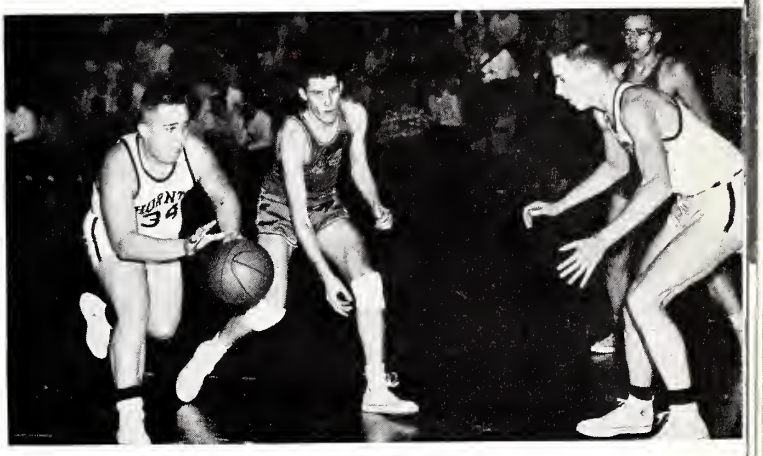
Outstanding players were Cal Bryant, Jim Ring and Walter Lentfer.

Thornton's junior varsity squad ended the year with a record of seven wins and four losses. The former freshman coach, Frank Bauman, directed the jay vees to their successful campaign.

The JV quintet posted two wins over Thornton Fractional, Blue Island, and Kankakee and they also beat Lockport. The defeats were by Galesburg, Bloom, and twice by Leyden. Leading scorers were juniors Dave Ring and Ken Haddon, and freshman Paul Jackson; other key players were Tim Abraham, Jack Taradash, Woody Godman, and Ed Bucnis.

Except for the seniors, these boys will be the mainstays of the varsity next year.

Bart Pettice drives around Fractional defense as Dave Walvoord screens.



Al Petty looks for an opening in Fractional defense as Jim Yavenue (11), Bob Miller (31) watch. The Wildcats won, 64-62, in a close game.

Mat-Cats

Thornton's wrestling squad had another good season. The Mat Cats finished with a record of 10 wins, 4 losses, and 1 tie. The team won the Oak Lawn Quadrangular Meet and the sectional tournament. In the conference meet, Blue Island Island captured the crown with 83 points and TTHS was runner-up with 80 points. Thornton and Blue Island tied for third place in the state meet. Rock Island came in first with 41 points, Proviso took second with 39 points, and Thornton and Blue Island had 36 points apiece. In the past four years, Coach Ted Czech has guided his boys to two firsts, a second, and a third place in state meets.

Captain Chuck Truby, the 175 pounder, and Ray Balsam, the 133 pounder, were the Thornton wrestlers who won in the state meet. This was Truby's second time as the 175 pound state champ. Herman Ayres, who wrestled at 154 pounds, came in third, and John Le Pore scored in the state meet.

The varsity grapplers beat Hirsh, 30-12; Blue Island, 23-17; Lockport, 38-8; Tilden Tech, 21-17; Waukegan, 22-21; Fractional, 31-8; Hinsdale, 34-6; Joliet, 22-16; Leyden, 34-6; and Moline, 36-6. They tied La Grange, 22-22, and lost to Proviso, 13-38; Bloom, 14-25; Reavis, 18-22; and state champion Rock Island, 18-28.

Wrestling

Thornton's Frosh-Soph wrestling squad came up with a very fine record of 9 wins and only 3 losses. In the past six years, Jack Robinson's wrestling teams have posted a phenomenal record of 56 wins and 8 defeats.

The Frosh-Soph squad beat Hirsh, 48-8; Blue Island, 28-16; Lockport, 56-0; Tilden Tech, 40-8; Bloom, 33-19; Waukegan, 30-16; Fractional, 27-19; Hinsdale, 50-0; and Leyden, 35-15. They were beaten by Proviso, 19-29; Joliet, 16-32; and Reavis, 18-24.

Frosh-Soph Squad—Row 1: Phil Balick, Russ Maranto, Bill Hawkins, Bob Voss, Bill De Vries, Ernest Knapp, Hayward Sumner. Tank-Cats

Thornton's varsity swimming team won their seventh consecutive South Suburban championship this year. Coach Froschauer's champions had a season record of seven wins and two losses and won the conference meet. Captain J. K. Sutor was outstanding. He set several conference records and was also high point-man. Tom Miskowicz, Bob Taylor, Ken De Graff, Keith Julle, and Bill Deady were all significant in the point-making. Thornton's team is composed of only three seniors, thirteen juniors, and one sophomore. Next year the team will be without Sutor, Deady, and Phil Brooks. Thornton has captured the SSL crown twelve times in its past twelve years in that league.

In dual meets the Mermen beat Fractional twice by scores of 43-34 and 48-29. They also triumphed over Morton, 50-27; Argo, 59-19; Lockport, 49-26; Riverside, 46-31; and Hammond, 48-29. They lost to two non-conference schools. Fenger beat Thornton by the score of 54-24 and Oak Park won by a 43-34 score. In the league meet Thornton had 72 points, a fact which made the victory decisive. Fractional had 46; Lockport, 25; Argo, 21; and Leyden, 5.

Fro checks stop-watch with J. K. Sutor.

Swimming

The Frosh-Soph swimming squad walked off with the conference championship. Mel De Graff's swimmers had a season record of eight wins and one loss. Probably the most outstanding members of the team were Captain Bill Havansek, Dave Ducett, Jim Vinke, Bob Kiersey, and Bill Jones. Thornton's team won the conference meet again and by a big score. Coach De Graff always comes up with a fine team, which seems usually to progress with the season.

The young mermen started the season in the wrong direction by losing the first meet of the year to Fractional, 42-35. They came back to win their remaining eight meets after they tasted the bitterness of defeat. The Sophs beat Fenger, 39-29; Leyden, 47-21; Morton, 63-14; Argo, 62-6; Oak Park, 40-37; Lockport, 55-13; and Riverside, 48-29. They ended the season by drowning Fractional, to whom they had previously lost, 58-19. Thornton scored 407 points to their opponents' 210 in dual meets.

Track

Mel Dabon and Bill Deady watch Mike Riley going over a hurdle.

This spring's track team had just six returning lettermen from last year. Those lettermen included co-captains Ken Vincent and Chuck Truby, who were middle-distance men. The others were Dean Harrison, broad jump, Mark Hanson, discus, Mike Riley, hurdles, and Jim Olsen, who heaved the shot.

The coaches, Frank Bauman and Jack Robinson, worked with the Cindermen to keep them ready for each meet. Key newcomers from the Frosh-Soph squad of last year were Ken Haddon and Don Cooley, dashmen; Tom Walton, a 440 man; Don Strassenburg, a high-jumper; and Manuel Fernandez, an 880 man. Keith Julle, a junior, and John Hebert, a sophomore, ran the mile; another sophomore was Larry Simpson, who was a dashman and a broad-jumper.

The squad met Argo and Thornton Fractional in a triangular meet and encountered Leyden, Kankakee, Bloom, and defending state champion, Blue Island, in dual meets. The Cindermen also went to the Mooseheart Relays.

Baseball

Bob Blaha's baseball squad had players to provide what appeared to be a very successful season.

The returning lettermen made up the nucleus of the team. Those from last year were Marty Gager, pitcher; Bob Miller, pitcher; Lonnie Austin, first baseman; Joe Zachery, outfielder; and Al Petty, infielder. None of the players could relax since there always was a capable reserve ready to take over. Other starters were junior Ron Kuykendall, catcher; Richard Hayes, shortstop; Ron Zapchenk, outfielder; Ed Behm, pitcher; and Jerry Boudreau, pitcher. Herman Ayres, a senior who switched from track, played third base, and Paul Jackson, a freshman, patroled centerfield.

The Frosh-Soph baseball nine had several boys who saw action last year playing for the freshmen. Freshman baseball could not be continued because of inadequate facilities. There is just one diamond, which is located on Ashland Avenue.

Bob Miller shows Marty Gager his grip.

Golf

As soon as the snow was off the ground and a few signs of spring appeared, Thornton's golfers started chasing those little white balls down the fairways. Coach Frank Froschauer's golf team had two lettermen back from the '55 season; they were Fred House and Dave Hager. Two other key men on the links were Ted Kagy and Ralph Cooper. They played well against stiff competition.

Tennis

Thornton's tennis team had prospects for a bright season. Coach Charles Moore had six returning lettermen who were determined to improve their prowess. Included among the lettermen was J. K. Sutor, who qualified for the state meet in '55. The other boys who returned were Captain George Skertich, Jim Vinke, John Cherry, Ted Koralewski, and Bob Hodge.

"Anchors Aweigh"

"Anchors Aweigh," the theme of this year's GAA swim pageant, took the audience on a trip around the globe.

Two sailors set the scene for the show by reminiscing about their voyages. A bit of American folk music started them on their way. The first stop was romantic Hawaii, and then on to Japan, Egypt, Ireland, and many more, before the return to U.S.A.

Irish number, "Minstrel Boy." Row 1: Shelley Ludwig, Pamela Koch. Row 2: Judy Anetil, Gaylene Lundmark.

GAA Swim Pageant

A diving exhibition was included in the program. Two fellas cut up the pool with their comedy antics. They were J. K. Sutor and Bill Deady. Four girls, Pam Koch, Betty Patton, Claudia Crenshaw, and Marcia Hall, showed their skill in an exhibition of form diving.

The audience left the show with a feeling that they too had been around the world.

Hula number. Sue Chilton, Flora Garrard, Marilyn Detweiler, Marcia Hall.

Intramurals

Intramural sports provide a whole school year of boys' activities. About 350 participated in the sports this year, and there were thirty-three teams. Some homerooms had enough interested boys to make up a whole team. Other homerooms combined. Meets were held after school from 3:30 to 5:00.

In the fall, boys began their season with basketball. Two freshman teams, one sophomore, and one junior-senior team competed. Four games were played each meet. A trophy was awarded to the winner.

At the beginning of November, table tennis, shuffleboard, checkers, and chess teams were formed. Competition lasted until the end of February.

Four volleyball teams of about fifty boys each were organized in March.

By spring the teams for tennis, golf, softball, and horseshoes had been made. These four activities interested about seventy-five boys.

Emblems were given to the first, second, and third place winners in each sport.

GAA Board

To help keep the gym classes running smoothly, girls are chosen from the sophomore class to be gym leaders their junior year. These girls take attendance, help with odd jobs, and sometimes assist in instructing the class. They have their own special class where they learn a variety of sports and dances.

Being a gym leader gives a girl a sense of duty and teaches her how to deal with people.

Gym Leaders

Girls Athletic Association board members and officers executed a well-rounded extra-curricular sports program for girls. Some of the activities were a Dad-Daughter Play Night, the banquet and the picnic (annual affairs), a play day, a swim pageant, and the usual sport seasons. These seasons include volleyball, basketball, swimming, baseball, and badminton.

GAA teaches girls good sportsmanship and provides wholesome after-school fun.

PERSONNEL

Dr. Ernest M. Hanson

Dr. E. M. Hanson has been superintendent of Thornton Township High School since 1952. He came to Thornton from Pueblo, Colorado, where he was head of the city school system. He obtained his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Minnesota and his doctor's degree from Colorado State College of Education. Dr. Hanson is kept busy with the big responsibility of managing a school as large as TTHS.

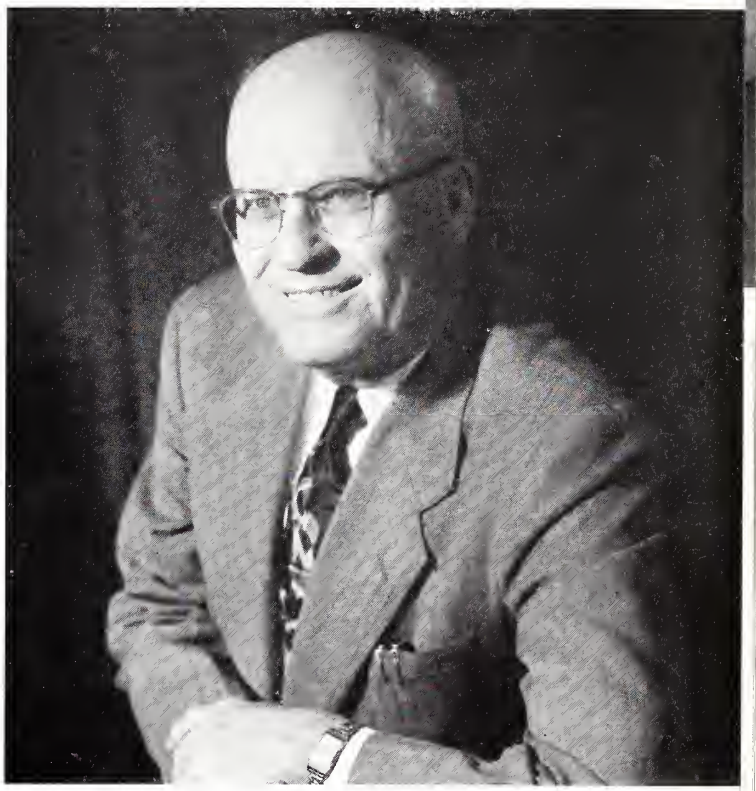
Business Manager

Mr. John A. Peterson, the new business manager, was appointed to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Dr. Charles W. Foster. Mr. Peterson received his Bachelor of Arts degree from De Pauw University and his Master of Science degree from Indiana University. Mr. Peterson's main job is to take care of all the business activities of the high school and junior college. Among his many activities are being secretary to the Board of Education, acting as purchasing agent for the high school, and continuing as manager of the bookstore a post held several years.

John A. Peterson

Supervisor of Instruction

Dr. Clifford R. Maddox is Assistant Superintendent in Charge of Instruction. He obtained his bachelor's degree from Georgetown College and his master's and doctor's degrees from the University of Chicago. Dr. Maddox and his office are in charge of many duties at Thornton. Some of them are managing all the testing programs in various classes, supervising classes throughout the building, obtaining substitute teachers, and directing the curriculum at Thornton. He has given his assistance to the University of Illinois men making the survey.



Clifford R. Maddox

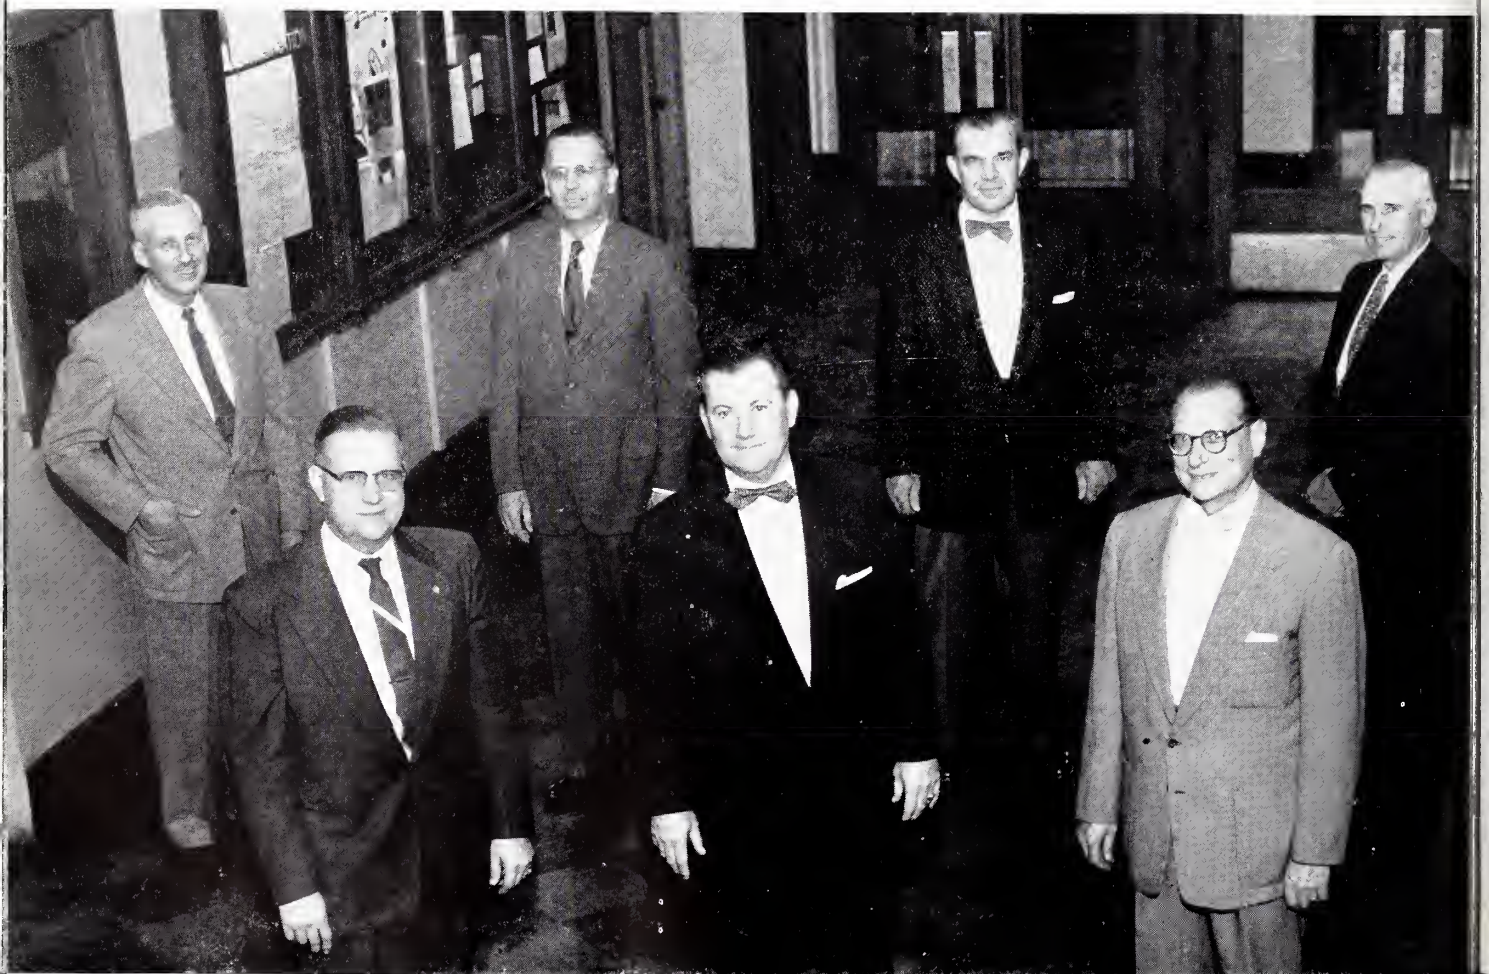
Board of Education

The Board of Education is the organization responsible for the welfare of the high school. Members are chosen in public election. It is their job to provide adequate housing and equipment for Thornton Township High School and to provide an adequate faculty and adequate educational opportunity for students of the township.

They make the general policies which govern the administration of the school and formulate such rules as they think will best suit the school and its activities.

Last year the board engaged the Office of Field Services of the University of Illinois to make a comprehensive school building survey in order to plan sufficient facilities for the large increase in enrollment which Thornton will experience during the next ten years. A survey of this type includes an analysis of educational needs, of finances, pupil enrollment, and school program site. This survey is now being made.

Board of Education—Row 1: Mr. Herbert G. Greiner, Mr. William B. Kane, Dr. Frederick Weiss. Row 2: Dr. C. E. Simon, Mr. George H. Meyer, Mr. Fred T. Ehlert, Mr. Henry Vandenberg.



Counsel—Mr. Burton Evans, Mr. A. F. Waldschmidt.

Educational Program

This year, the Board of Education has been busy with a number of projects. They have engaged consultants in each of the subject areas, like science, English, and industrial arts for instance, to make educational surveys. There is also a citizens committee appointed to act in an advisory capacity to the board. Representatives are people from all phases of the community: industry, professions, service clubs, housewives. Their job is to review the reports of the survey committee and to advise the board of the results. Because of the large increase in student population, a bond issue was needed for more buildings.

During summer vacation last year, the program of renovation of present buildings was continued. 18,000 feet of acoustical ceiling was installed in various corridors and in the class principals' offices. A big painting program was initiated. The tunnel was painted and so were the walls of the gymnasium. Another project was construction of a new temporary building for the Junior College.

The board has purchased several vacant lots to be used as parking lots for junior college students, and they are also buying property for a new athletic field. They plan eventually to move the football field and build a new stadium.

Thornton's two deans and four class principals play an important role in the everyday guidance and welfare of each student who enters Thornton Township High School. The Boys Club and its activities are sponsored by the dean of boys. He also heads the hall guards, bus guards, and campus patrol. The Girls Club and its various social events and welfare programs, planned throughout the year, are sponsored by the dean of girls. Counseling the students in personal affairs and school life is a major part of the deans' work. Their lives are centered around school affairs, and all activities that are within their province are carefully administered.

The four class principals are Thornton's assistant administrators. They handle program changes, program cards, take care of attendance, give educational advice when needed, and handle discipline problems. These important people help to make Thornton a school of high standards. A helping hand is always out to guide the ambitious student to knowledge where there is power and security.

Building Staffs

Good food that's good for you. That is the job of the cafeteria staff, headed by Miss Florence Waterman. Wholesome, appetizing luncheons as well as food for banquets and parties is provided for both the students and faculty.

The maintenance crew plays an important part at Thornton. There are thirty-six men and women on the staff, including a carpenter and an electrician. Their job is to keep the buildings neat, clean, and in good repair.

Senior Class

As the year draws to a close, another page is written in the dusty volumes of Thornton's history, and another senior class has come and gone. Looking back through the pages, the seniors can see the events of their last year. The first day of school brought the new freshmen wandering down the corridors, much to their bewilderment and much to the seniors' amusement. Later on, attention was turned to more important things. The senior homerooms elected class senators to represent them in planning the big events of the year, the Junior-Senior Party and the Junior-Senior Prom. Class officers had the important task of transacting class business, and the president was responsible for raising and lowering the Flag every day.

Graduation Ushers

Next to graduation, the most important day in a senior's life was Honors Day. There the seniors anxiously waited while the long-sought scholarships were announced. Awards for athletics, service, scholarship, music, and other school activities were also given out.

After almost all had been said and done, the list of the newly-elected members of the National Honor Society was read. This membership was what many a junior and senior had dreamed of and worked for. To be eligible, a student must have shown good character, a high scholastic record, outstanding leadership qualities, and must have been of service to the school. Membership is limited to five percent of the junior class, and fifteen percent of the senior class.

The big night finally came. The junior ushers and guides, feeling very important in their caps and gowns, took their places amidst the proud, graduating seniors. The juniors with the highest scholastic average were chosen to be ushers; the two highest girls were guides.

The Purple X committee was organized by Mr. O. F. Umbaugh in the fall of 1938 to provide a student activity after home football and basketball games. The committee, consisting of members of the faculty who had been appointed by the superintendent, with the help of a few students organized dances and games in the cafeteria. Games were later dropped in favor of dancing, and the hiring of a band necessitated the charging of admissions. Any profit was put into school projects.

Ever since the Purple X committee was founded, it has consisted of members of the faculty appointed by the superintendent. Each year these faculty members, guided in part by recommendations from the student committee, appoint new student members, on the basis of leadership and service, to replace graduating seniors. This faculty-student committee meets the first Wednesday of each month; anyone who wishes to do so may attend these meetings as a non-voting guest. Dances sponsored by the committee are held after every home basketball and football game. The student committee is responsible for discipline; all members of the faculty take turns as chaperones. Although the dances are open only to Thornton and J. C. students and graduates, any parents who wish to attend are admitted free and are always welcome.

Since its beginning in 1938, the Purple X has performed many services to the school. It has organized and supported several bands; it sponsors assemblies, such as the Purdue Men's Glee Club, and contributes to other school projects. Several other school organizations which have little or no means of raising funds, such as NHS and JRC, receive support, and some charities, such as the March of Dimes, receive contributions.

SYMBOL OF EXCELLENCE

For 48 years, emphasis on exceptional quality has been the keynote of Rogers yearbooks. A wide range of type selection, finest materials, careful preparation of all printed forms and good binding, combine to assure an outstanding yearbook.

Personal service on all yearbooks, based on years of experience in serving America's leading schools, has created a tradition of sincerity and excellence which has been recognized as a security to the school and an inspiration to the staff.

"Jahn & Ollier Again"

A familiar and reassuring slogan

FAMILIAR...because it has appeared in thousands of the country's finest yearbooks for the past half century.

REASSURING...because those years of specialized experience bring complete service, outstanding quality and dependable delivery to the yearbook staffs with whom we work.
